

10 games for your cat on your iPad or Android tablet

Countless iPad and Android tablet games are made specifically for cats. Most of them are free to download. Here are the best cat games to download on your iPad or Android tablet.

Are scratchers or toy mice enough to entertain your adorable cat? The cat world has entered the digital age, with countless iPad and Android tablet games made specifically for cats.

Most of them are free to download. Here are the best cat games to download on your iPad or Android tablet.

1. Friskies JitterBug

1. (Free of charge)

This game will definitely be loved by your cat. You can select Play Game or Advanced from the home screen. In both modes, you will see a completely black screen with large bugs on it. When a cat touches a bug, it will disappear, and new ones will appear continuously.

The image shows a game interface for 'Friskies Jitter Bug'. At the top left is the Purina logo. Below it is the Friskies logo, and then the title 'Jitter Bug' in large, green, bubbly letters with a ladybug on the letter 'J'. In the center is a close-up of a cat's face with its right paw raised. A pink ladybug is on the right side. Two pink buttons are at the bottom: 'PLAY GAME' and 'ADVANCED'. A 'TipLak' watermark is in the center. The bottom of the interface has a blue bar with the 'TipMake' logo.

The game has no sound and your cat wins by catching all the bugs.

2. Cat Fishing 2

1. | (Free of charge)

If you prefer your cat to go fishing instead of catching bugs, then Cat Fishing from Go-Cat is a good choice. The goal of this game is for your cat to touch the fish and make them disappear.

The game becomes progressively more difficult, with more fish appearing and disappearing from the screen as your cat progresses through different levels.

3. Game for Cats

1. (Available for free, in-app purchases)

When you launch Game for Cats on your iPad or Android tablet, you'll see a split screen with lasers on one side and cheese on the other. The cheese option requires an in-app purchase to play, but the laser option is completely free.

If your cat enjoys playing with a laser pointer, he or she will love this. The laser dot moves around the screen in an amazing way, forcing your cat to chase it. When the cat 'catches' the laser pointer, a small sound will be heard and a new dot will appear.

4. Mouse for Cats

1. | (Available for free, in-app purchases)

This free, high-resolution 2D game for iPad and Android is built by cat lovers, for cats. With more than 10 levels, the goal is still to catch the mouse on the screen. This time, your cat can pin the mouse in place, then let it run away again, just like in real life!

In-app purchases are available for different mouse colors or noises.

5. Best Games for Cats

1. (Free of charge)

Similar to the other apps mentioned, the purpose of this iPad-specific game is for your cat to catch a mouse, a bell, a ball of wool, or a laser dot on the screen. There are also sounds to let you know how well the cat is playing. If the sounds bother you, you can easily disable them.

The game will keep your cat entertained for hours.

6. Cat Alone

1. (free of charge)

Cat Alone is a cat entertainment app that will keep your cat entertained for hours. The software offers a variety of chasing options, from butterflies and cockroaches to laser pointers and lizards. Your cat can play for hours with this fun app.

7. Cat Playground

1. (free of charge)

Cat Playground is great software for cats. It allows your pet to hunt mice, fish or laser pointers and win points for each prey capture. However, be aware that it can cause your cat to become addicted.

This cat game will work on any Android phone with a touchscreen, but will work best on phones and tablets with large screens, as it will be easier for your cat to use. This is a premium app that will make your cat happy and energetic.

8. Cat Toy 2

1. (free of charge)

Cat Toy is another great cat smartphone app. You just need to unlock the Cat Toy and let your cat play with it. Catching and chasing toys will provide hours of entertainment for your pet. If you are looking for the best cat games, then you have come to the right place.

There are 6 toys in this game. You can vary the speed to find the optimal option for your cat. Your pet is also unlikely to accidentally exit the game. Such cat apps help enhance their reflexes and make them more active and happy.

9. Cat Clicker Training

1. (free of charge)

Another great software for training cats! A clicking sound is made by your device when your pet touches its paw on the screen.

This game contains complete instructions for training your cat with a clicker.

10. Pocket Pond

1. (free of charge)

This is not just another fish catching app for your cat. Thousands of beautiful koi fish swim on your tablet or phone like they are in a real pond. Pocket Pond allows you to raise, breed, sell and design your own pond. And your cat will definitely love playing with it too!
