

10 most beautiful world heritage in Asia you can not ignore

Rough Guides tourism site offers a list of 10 most beautiful world heritage sites in Asia, including Ha Long Bay of Vietnam.

Rough Guides tourism site offers a list of 10 most beautiful world heritage sites in Asia, including Ha Long Bay of Vietnam.

1. The Philippines terraces

Located in the Cordillera area north of Luzon , terraces were created and cultivated by the Ifugao more than 2,000 years ago. Terraced fields are made of stone and mud, representing the technical system of wet rice cultivation on the mountainside, passed down from generation to generation for centuries.

Photo: Roughguides.

2. Angkor archaeological park (Cambodia)

One of the most important archaeological sites in Southeast Asia. It includes numerous temples, irrigation systems and important transport routes of the Khmer Empire from the 9-15 century. In particular, the most notable temple is Angkor Wat, believed to be the world's largest religious monument built in the early 12th century. The temple was built with sandstone blocks exploited from the mountain of Phnom Kulen, transport by raft along Siem Reap River.

Photo: Angkor-Cambodia.

3. Ha Long Bay

The bay is located in Quang Ninh province, consisting of 1,969 islands. The name Ha Long comes from the legend of a dragon flying from the sky, spraying pearls from above the sea. These gems, when touched, form limestone mountains to stop the enemy. The majestic limestone mountains floating on the blue sea create a spectacular scenery attracting a lot of domestic and foreign tourists.

Photo: Pixabay / CCO.

4. Kamchatka volcano (Russia)

This place is located on the Kamchatka peninsula, east of Russia, there is dense volcanic density. The area has a rich wildlife system and beautiful natural landscapes with beaches, lakes and rivers.

Photo: Russia.

5. Historical center of Bukhara (Uzbekistan)

Dating back over 2,000 years, Bukhara's Uzbek city is on the Silk Road. As one of Central Asia's largest cities, located at the crossroads of commercial routes, the Uzbek becomes a center for merchants and tourists. Prominent in the buildings preserved to this day is the Ismail Samanid mausoleum, a great example of 10th-century Islamic architecture.

Photo: Dreamstime.

6. Historic Kyoto (Japan)

Kyoto is the capital, the cultural center of Japan from 794 to the 19th century. It has a typical traditional wooden architecture, and beautiful gardens, and is home to an impressive temple and palace. big and beautiful museum.

Photo: UNESCO .

7. The Great Wall (China)

With a length of over 20,000 km, the Great Wall was built from the 3rd century BC to the 17th century to protect the territory, including walls, fortresses, watchtowers built by land, wood, bricks and rock. Not only is a wall protecting the country from invaders, it also preserves Chinese culture and tradition.

Photo: List25 .

8. Railway system on the mountain (India)

Built around the late 18th century and early 19th century under British colonial rule, India's mountain railway system embodied outstanding technology at that time. This rail line affects every area it passes through, helping to change the socio-economic and cultural appearance of these regions. Today, railroads pass through rugged rocky areas but bring beautiful scenery to be the favorite journey of many tourists.

Photo: Thebetterindian.

9. Dambulla Golden Temple (Sri Lanka)

Located in central Sri Lanka, this is the best preserved cave monastery. 5 sanctuaries nestled under towering stone, embellished into statues and paintings depicting Buddhist scenes. This is a famous pilgrimage site for many Buddhists from the first century AD.

Photo: SriLanka Experience.

10. Tropical rainforest heritage of Sumatra island, Indonesia

Photo: UNESCO.

Includes 3 national parks with a total area of more than 2 million hectares, this is a place with diverse flora and fauna: 10,000 species of plants, 201 species of mammals and more than 550 species of birds. Beautiful natural landscape with caves, waterfalls, ice lakes and volcanoes.

You finished reading the article "10 most beautiful world heritage in Asia you can not ignore" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.