

10 rare records are unbelievable about the human body

People who can pull the skin away from the body by up to 16 cm, feet nearly 40 cm long, ... are unbelievable records of the human body that has been recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records.

People who can pull the skin away from the body by up to 16 cm, feet nearly 40 cm long, . are unbelievable records of the human body that has been recorded in the Guinness Book of World Records.

With 453 body piercings, Rolf Bucholz (German) has set a record as the world's most highly recommended man.

Jeison Hernandez from Venezuela has set a record of the world's largest feet, with a length of approximately 40 cm. His feet still grew normally until he was 10 years old. His legs suddenly developed "mutations" that increased from size 5.5 to size 11.

With the belly skin can pull out the change of the tablecloth, the neck skin pulls up instead of covering, Garry Stretch Turner (UK) is the person with the most elastic skin in the world. In addition to "mutant" Garry Stretch Turner can pull your skin 16cm away from your body.

The world record for Chanel Tapper, the world's longest tongue from California (USA), is nearly 10cm long.

The world's largest mouth belongs to Francisco Domingos Joaquin from Angola with a size of nearly 18 cm - enough to level across a can of soda.

The person with the world's largest cosmetic surgery earlobe is recognized by the Guinness Book of Records as Kala Kaiwi (Hawaii) with a diameter of up to 11 cm.

Surely everyone must be surprised to see Kim Goodman control his eyeballs. She set the world record as the world's most protruding eyeball when controlling the 1.2-centimeter eyeball from the eye socket.

With long "long legs" approaching 1.3 m, Svetlana Pankratova from Russia has owned the world's longest legs. This is probably the desire of all women in the world.

You finished reading the article "10 rare records are unbelievable about the human body" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.