

10 reasons why you must go to Venice city of love in 2017

In this article, we will give you some reasons to see that a trip to Italy's famous love city in 2017 is a very smart choice.

In this article, we will give you some reasons for you to see that a trip to Italy's famous " love city " in 2017 is a very smart choice.

1. Visit the sanctuary T Fondaco

This luxurious retail mecca will open in late 2016 and last in 2017. You will see dozens of top-notch products in fashion and perfume villages. Try a meal at Amo restaurant where talented chef Massimo Alajmo presides over, or climb to the rooftop for a more special view of this famous city in the mecca.

2. Join the festival

A variety of music, theater and folklore events will take place at St Mark's Square, with parades of formal and quirky costumes. Come and enjoy.

3. Eat and drink at Glam at Palazzo Venart hotel to enjoy delicious food

In an airy space, restaurants serve special seasonal menus, including local seafood or nutritious vegetables from the Synergic garden on the famous Giudecca island.

4. Filled with the Murano museum

The Murano Glass Museum showcases all the ancient glass works of the island city of Venice in an exhibition displaying 250 works through innovative products from famous designers to everyday items. The craft masters are crafted with sophistication that makes you unable to take your eyes off.

A large, light yellow rectangular area with a thin blue border. In the center, the text "TipsMake.com" is displayed in a light green, sans-serif font. The "i" in "Tips" is lowercase, while "Make" is uppercase. The ".com" is in a smaller font size.

5. Meet British artist Damien Hirst at Palazzo Grassi & Punta della Dogana

What's interesting is going out in Italy but meeting a famous British artist. Come to Venice, meet, interact with Damien Hirst and enjoy the impressive artistic atmosphere from this talented artist.

A large, light yellow rectangular area with a thin blue border. In the center, the text "TipsMake.com" is displayed in a light green, sans-serif font. The "i" in "Tips" is lowercase, while "Make" is uppercase. The ".com" is in a smaller font size.

6. See the 2017 Olympic Games

The Contemporary Art World Olympics kicks off on May 13, 2017, with artists from 57 countries participating. The UK representative will be the sculpture of Phyllida Barlow .

A large, light yellow rectangular area with a thin blue border, containing the 'TipsMake.com' logo watermark in a light green, sans-serif font.

7. Birthday of 450-year-old Monteverdi composer at La Fenice

450-year birthday celebration of genius composer Claudio Monteverdi will take place at La Fenice opera house in Venice in June 2017. This is an opportunity for you to hear timeless classical music over time. .

A large, light yellow rectangular area with a thin blue border, containing the 'TipsMake.com' logo watermark in a light green, sans-serif font.

8. The Venice Film Festival will appear

The oldest film festival in the world will be a film event that will make visitors flock to Lido, Venice to see this great show, although the fare is a bit expensive.

9. Admire Picasso paintings on the beach

Picasso's paintings will be reproduced right on the beach so that people continue to discover the talents of the Spanish master through the poetic and beautiful themes of the sea.

10. Performing a glass art week in Venice

Venice is known for its glass show of miraculous colors . By 2017, a week in September 2017 will take place the exhibition to showcase exclusive types of glass and performances that attract visitors.

Have you found excitement with the reasons we just mentioned? Let's visit the city of Venice right away!

You finished reading the article "10 reasons why you must go to Venice city of love in 2017" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.