A theme designed specifically for YouTuber MKBHD popular technology. This theme features black and red wallpaper menus, dialer and quick settings menu. The Main Settings page breaks a bit with a color palette. Icons are white flat with minimal circle shape. Red navigation buttons are probably the most unique feature of this theme.

This topic is aimed at bright white text on a black background. There is a color element present in the icons and the Settings menu. A small break point for this topic is that some text fields end in black on a black background, it seems an error.

Definitely the most out of topic on our list. This theme has a pack of wallpapers and icons inspired by outer space. The icons are a small animated movie, which can splash out because most of your third party icons will not be themed. If that doesn't bother you, the animated screen lock screen with aliens will bring out this great dark theme.
