

10 worthy words for you to choose as your living motto

The proverbs, the best saying about life deserves you to live your maxim.

If someday you feel sad and depressed then don't do anything at all, take your handbook and record these living proverbs into the book, while reflecting on these statements. . Make sure after writing these 10 living proverbs, your spirit will be much more excited and regain energy to be ready to face the challenges that lie ahead of you.

1. 36 famous inspirational quotes that change lives
2. 34 profound statements about life
3. 8 sentences are both deep and absorbent, everyone should read to understand more about life

1. You are more courageous than what you believe, you are stronger than what you see and you are smarter than you think.
2. Don't lower the dream just to match the situation. Strengthen your beliefs to make things more wonderful.
3. Work when others are sleeping. Learn when they're partying. Save when they're wasting. And you will soon get the life you dreamed of.

4. There is nothing to apologize for when you have high standards. The person who really wants to be part of your life will know how to reach that standard.

5. Wrong one time may be an accident. But repeating that mistake is the choice.

6. Failure is not scary. It is frightening when you stay in one place from day to day and nothing changes.

7. If you can make someone smile, do it today! This world needs many people like you.

8. If your dream does not make you afraid, it is clear that the dream is not big enough.
9. The most expensive lessons often come from the worst times.

10. Hard-working people will beat talented people when talented people don't work hard.

You finished reading the article "10 worthy words for you to choose as your living motto" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.