

11 best free word matching games on Android and iPhone to improve English vocabulary

When you want to play a new game on your smartphone, there can be a lot of options. Both the Android and iOS app stores are packed with fun and challenging games. This is especially true when it comes to word matching games.

So, if you're looking for something fun to play when you're bored, here are the best free word puzzles to play on your phone.

1. Wordscapes

Wordscapes is one of the few great puzzle apps that combines word creation with crossword puzzles. You just need to swipe to connect the letters to form the word that matches the crossword. Remember that not all words are correct. They have to match the crossword puzzle for you to progress.

If you like relaxing word puzzles, Wordscapes is definitely a game you should try. Puzzle packs are themed with beautiful visuals from dawn, jungle to ocean. The game also has pleasant background music to enhance your experience. For a casual and challenging word puzzle, Wordscapes is fantastic.

2. Words Crush: Hidden Words

Words Crush: Hidden Words is another fun word puzzle game. You are given letters to connect to form thematic words. However, when you swipe over them, the remaining letters will fall down. So be careful to connect them correctly when there is more than one same letter.

Try not to make mistakes and earn stars to unlock additional themes. You can go to the beach, the kitchen, the farm and even the outside space if you play well. Words Crush: Hidden Words has a simple concept but extremely interesting gameplay.

3. Pictoword

Maybe when you play word matching games, you like to combine pictures with words. If so, consider Pictoword. This weird word challenge will test your solving skills. You will see two images that combine to form a word. For example, one picture might be the key and the other could be the blackboard. Enter the number of letters shown to form a word based on the picture.

Pictoword offers quests for you to complete to get extra in-game features, so be sure to check for new ones often. You can also join daily challenges and earn coins. Then use those coins to get elimination hints or reveal cool letters that let you skip the puzzle. Pictoword is a great combination of pictures and word puzzles.

4. Ruzzle

In Ruzzle, you are given a group of random letters to create words, compete with friends or random players to generate as many words as you can in 2 minutes and over 3 rounds. You earn points for producing the longest or best word, the accuracy of your answer, and the number of words you generate against your opponent.

With a 2 minute limit, it's a race against time as well as a battle of wits. You have to strike a balance between generating the most words, coming up with the words that use the most letters, and the rewards that come with it.

If you want to practice before you fight a real person, you can use the app's offline practice mode to perfect your skills.

5. Word Cookies

With vibrant themes and fun music, Word Cookies will help you train your vocabulary to solve puzzles. You will see points showing the number of words you can create and the number of letters in each word. Then, drag over the letters at the bottom to make the right word.

Word Cookies allows you to shuffle letters or use hints when you get stuck. You'll start out as a novice chef, but with your abilities, you'll quickly become the ultimate chef. The game has more than 2,000 exciting levels to play.

6. WordWhizzle Search

WordWhizzle Search has the same gameplay as Word Cookies but has a huge number of levels up to more than 2,700 levels. You see a topic displayed at the top and slots for words at the bottom. Swipe through the letters to create words that are both relevant to the topic and to the locations.

This word puzzle game is a bit more complicated in that you can only connect letters in a straight line. However, you can use the letters more than once. The better you do, the more you progress and the harder the game becomes. For word puzzle fans, WordWhizzle Search offers a great challenge.

7. Languinis

Languinis is a word puzzle game with an interesting story attached. Match three or more tiles to show the letters. Then use those letters to make words and meet the level goals. Your ultimate goal is to free the little Languinis.

The game has over 1,000 levels, unique power-ups, challenging gameplay, and great graphics and sound. Match more than 3 items to create special tiles and then combine them to create a big explosion. And remember, the longer words and letters with higher scores will help you reach your goal quickly.

8. Wordzee!

Wordzee! is a charming combination of anagram (anagram) and scrabble. You get a selection of cells, each with a different value, and you have to create words of different lengths from them. The more words you can handle, the higher the score you get. If you can make 5 words out of your letters, you will get a bonus.

The trick is that you have to know which letter to use for short and long words to get more points. You can also take a risk and swap some letters in the hope of getting better words.

Plus, you're not alone. You'll be playing against other people, random people or friends, which adds a fun and competitive element to the challenge. Paired with fun, colorful pictures, Wordzee! is a must-play for all word puzzle fans, especially for those who want to play with their friends online.

9. Bold Moves

Bold Moves is another word puzzle game with a unique gameplay style. You swipe to swap tiles and match 3 or more tiles. However, your goal is to match the tiles containing the letters to get them into the puzzle. The quiz is shown above and includes an inspirational quote that feels fun.

When you have matched enough letters and know the answer to the puzzle, tap Solve. Then fill in the missing letters and move on to the next level. Bold Moves offers challenging obstacles, special tiles and useful boosters like other similar games.

With beautiful graphics and captivating music, this word puzzle game by Oprah Winfrey Network is definitely a very interesting choice.

10. Infinite Word Search Puzzles

Sometimes the time-tested word puzzles are the most fun. Infinite Word Search Puzzles offers a strange enjoyment. With two game modes, you can race against time or solve puzzles at your own pace.

The game has a lot of word search categories for single player. Choose from themes like animals, art, TV shows and sports with multiple levels in each. You can also unlock special categories by watching videos or paying to remove ads. Infinite Word Search Puzzles is the ideal choice for fans of the genre.

11. Alpha Omega

Alpha Omega has been around for a while. This is a crossword puzzle game and has some pretty difficult puzzles. You get limited hints with the letters in the wrong order. Just tap to swap letters, memorize hints and tackle the next challenge.

What makes Alpha Omega stand out, in addition to the balanced gameplay, is the sound and visual effects. You can choose from attractive themes and enjoy soothing background music as you play. If you love relaxing games on mobile devices, then Alpha Omega is the choice not to be missed.
