

17 interesting facts that few people know about billionaire Bill Gates

In addition to the above, the life of this billionaire has a lot of interesting things, but few people know, even never heard. If you're a Bill Gates fan, there's no reason not to read this article, it certainly won't disappoint you.

Speaking of Bill Gates, none of us did not know him. His name and career have a strong influence all over the world, with ordinary people, he is the second richest billionaire in the world. With the tech world, Gates is a legend who founded one of the world's largest technology firms. As for the people in underdeveloped countries, Gates is a "living saint" when he and his wife share billions of dollars of charitable assets to improve the lives, health and education of the poor.

In addition to the above, the life of this billionaire has a lot of interesting things, but few people know, even never heard. If you're a Bill Gates fan, there's no reason not to read this article, it certainly won't disappoint you.

1. When he was a young boy, studying at Lakeside School, Seattle, USA, Bill Gates himself wrote the first computer software on a General Electric computer himself. This is an automated software that allows players to play tic-tac-toe (a checkered flag) with a computer.

2. After the school found Bill Gates programming talent, they let him write his own calendar software for each student in the school. The cunning Mr. Gates changed the program's code, putting himself in the school's "beautiful and interesting girls" classes.

3. Many people may not believe it, but Bill Gates actually read the entire World Book Encyclopedia series when he was in his teens.

4. Gates graduated from Lakeside in 1973 with almost absolute SAT scores of 1590/1600. This is a standardized test for enrolling in several US universities.

5. There is an interesting point in Gates that many people admire him is, he is willing to give up university lecture, renounce school reputation is the dream of many people to pursue the dream of bringing career name Microsoft in 1975.

6. Two years after leaving Harvard University, he was arrested by police for driving a red light and not having a driver's license in New Mexico.

1. Why is Bill Gates called a "eccentric genius"?

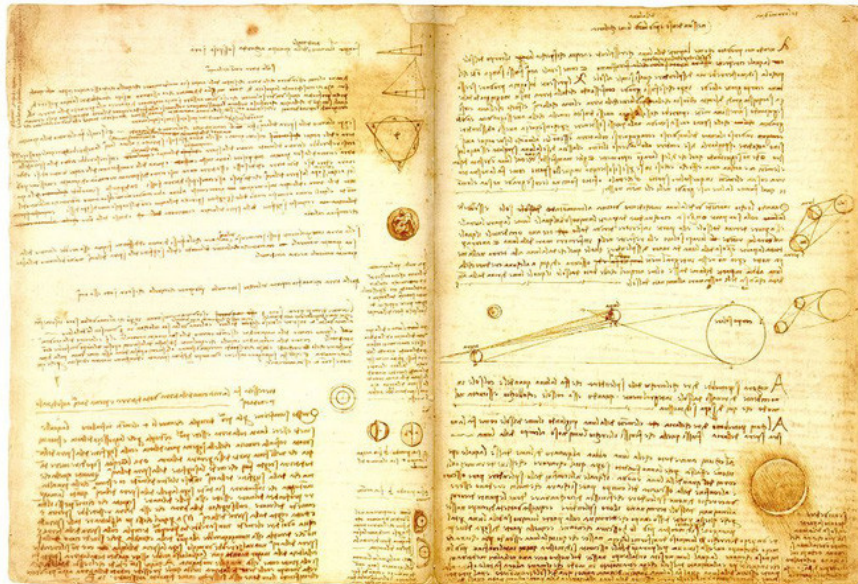

7. When Microsoft was founded, Bill Gates had a habit of remembering the license plates of each of its employees so that they could know their working time sooner or later. However, over time the company grew and the staff grew. So he must gradually give up this habit.

8. Bill Gates is a car collector favorite, and he has his own collection of a rather large collection of Porsche cars. He bought the Porsche 959 sports car, 13 years before it was approved for circulation by the US Environmental Protection Agency or the US Department of Transportation.

9. Perhaps few people know that Gates was trained to fly an airplane. Today, he often travels on a plane bought in 1997, which he often calls "overly ostentatious".

10. Bill Gates is the only person with an extremely valuable and valuable asset: the Codex Leicester, this is one of a collection of handwritten manuscripts, Scientific researcher, inventor Leonardo da Vinci. In order to have this precious stock, Gates had to spend $ 30.8 million to buy in the auction in 1994.

11. Although he is a billionaire who holds a huge fortune, but Bill Gates says that his children will inherit only $ 10 million later, because he thinks that he will leave the children with money. too big is not good for them.

1. Bill Gates' son only inherited $ 10 million

12. Today, he spends most of his time with his Bill & Melinda Gates charity. However, he did not forget to spend time working with Microsoft, specifically the "Personal Secretary" project, one that "will remember everything and help you find old things, help you choose a goal to focus on".

13. Gates once said that if Microsoft fails, then perhaps today people will know him as an artificial intelligence researcher rather than a technology genius.

14. Gates expressed concern about the brilliant intelligence of future artificial intelligence (AI) similar to physical prince Stephen Hawking and Elon Musk, SpaceX group president.

15. Like everyone else, he has a passion for music, and Gates' favorite song is Weezer.

16. He read all 50 books a year. "Reading is still my main way to learn new things and also to challenge my understanding."

17. Bill Gates confesses that he does not know any languages, and this is what makes him regret most of his life.

Maybe you are interested:

1. Bill Gates: The secret of the life of the richest man in the world
2. The unexpected levels in Bill Gates' life
3. 29 meaningful statements by Bill Gates that freshmen need to remember

You finished reading the article "17 interesting facts that few people know about billionaire Bill Gates" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
