

20 best apps of 2011 for iPhone, iPad

The article introduces 20 applications for iOS mobile operating system. These work and entertainment applications are new, fun, useful and most special, they are all free.

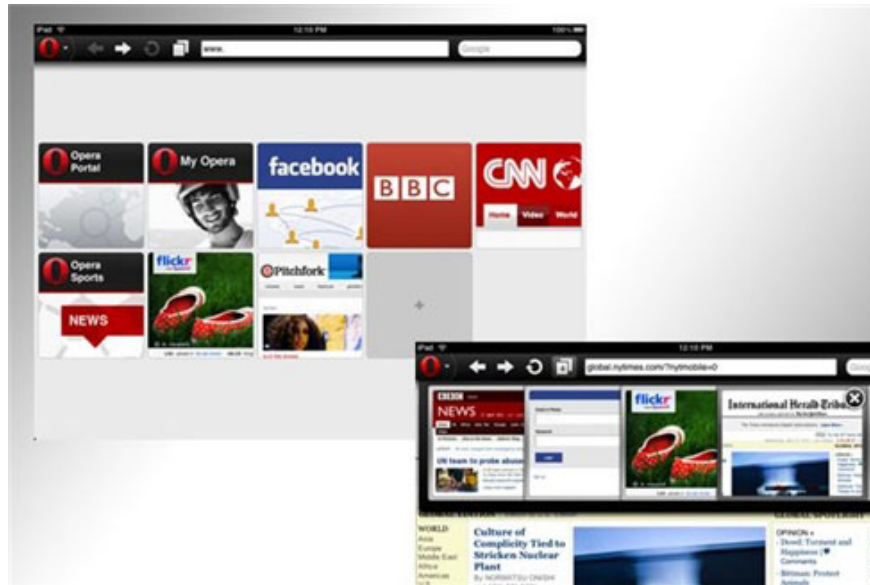

The article introduces 20 applications for iOS mobile operating system. These work and entertainment applications are new, fun, useful and most special, they are all free.

1. Photosynth

Capture the world around you with iPhone with beautiful 3D panorama images. This application from Microsoft helps you put photos together and share them via Photosynth's online service or via Facebook.

2. Opera Mini 6

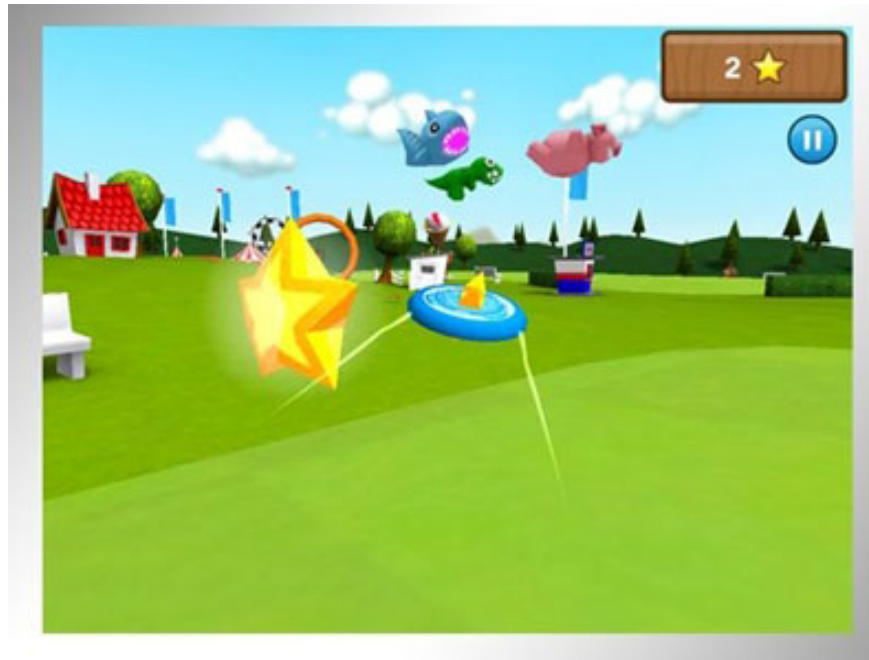

Great when you're using a slow connection, Opera Mini 6 for iPhone and iPad is a formidable competitor of the Safari browser. The tab loading feature is very nice in the background and you can sync the bookmark list to the desktop if your computer also uses the Opera browser.

3. Nike + GPS

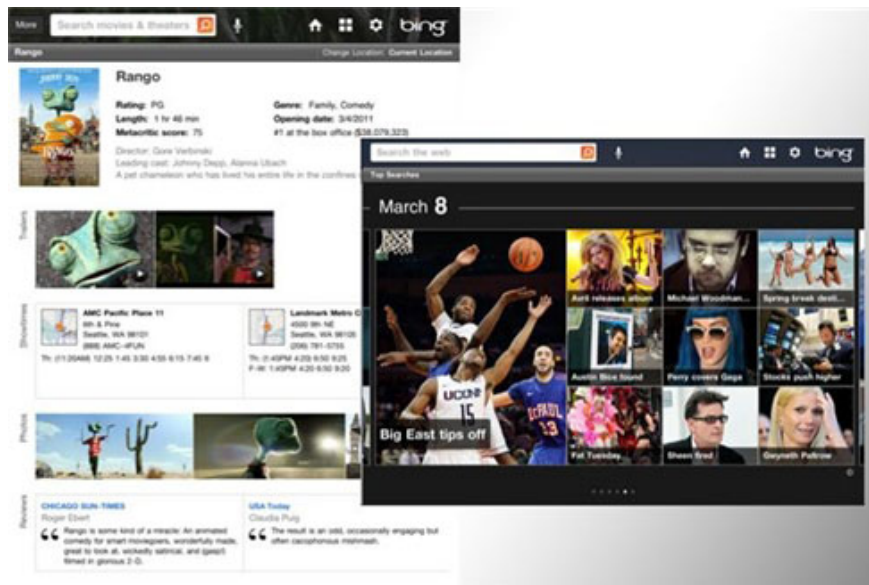

Nike's jogging companion app is now available for free and you don't need to use shoes with special sensors when using this app. It can save your jogging journey via GPS and iPhone accelerometer.

4. Frisbee Forever

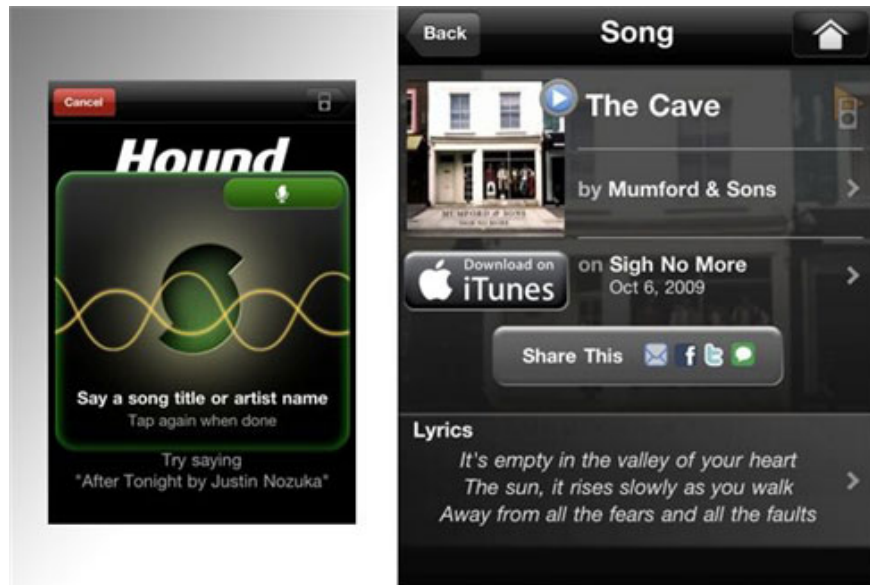

Open Frisbee, overcome obstacles and collect stars. A simple, fun game to entertain, Forever Frisbee is one of the latest applications needed for both iPhone and iPad.

5. Bing for iPad

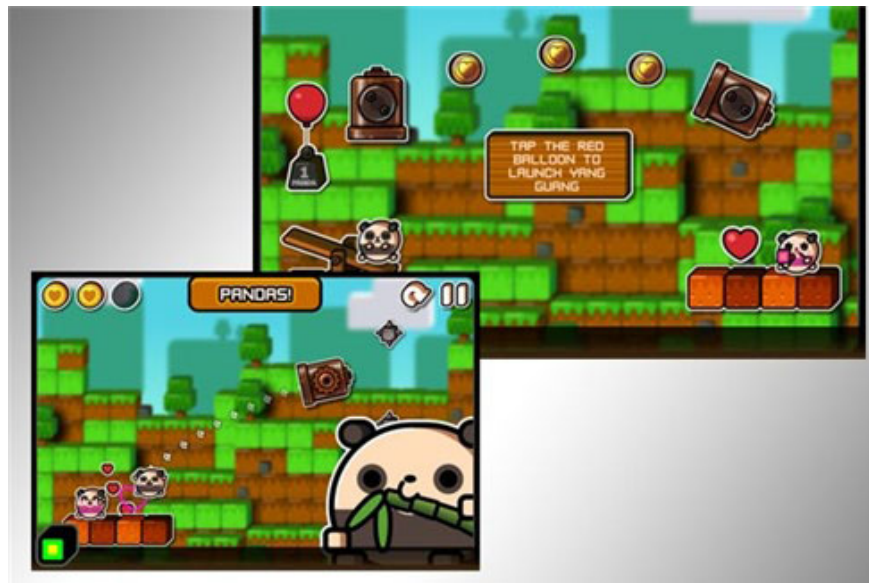

As a harmonious combination of search and data collection tools similar to magazines, the Bing for iPad app is a great way to browse news, watch movies or even perform search operations. often.

6. Hound

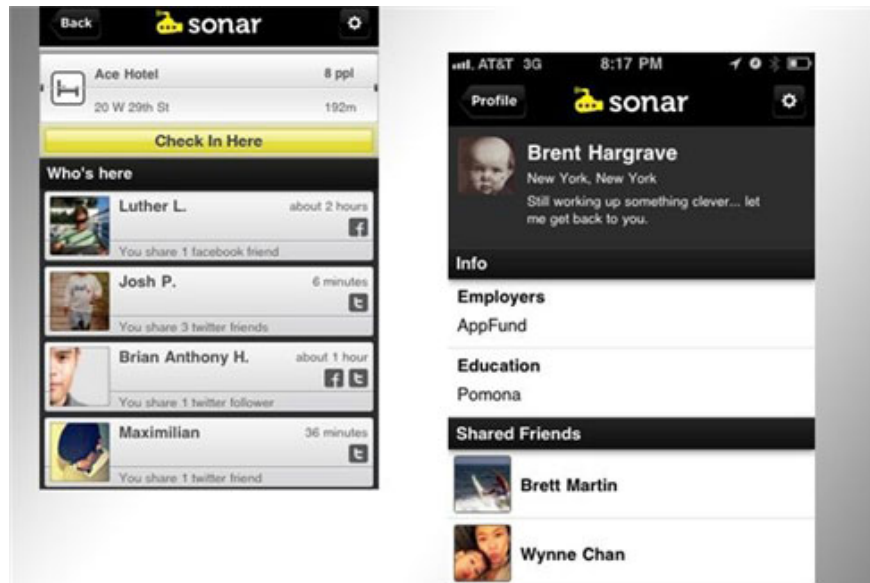

Hound allows you to read the name of an artist, a band or a song, then the application will appear with more relevant information as well as photos, dates, lyrics and song previews.

7. Land-a Panda

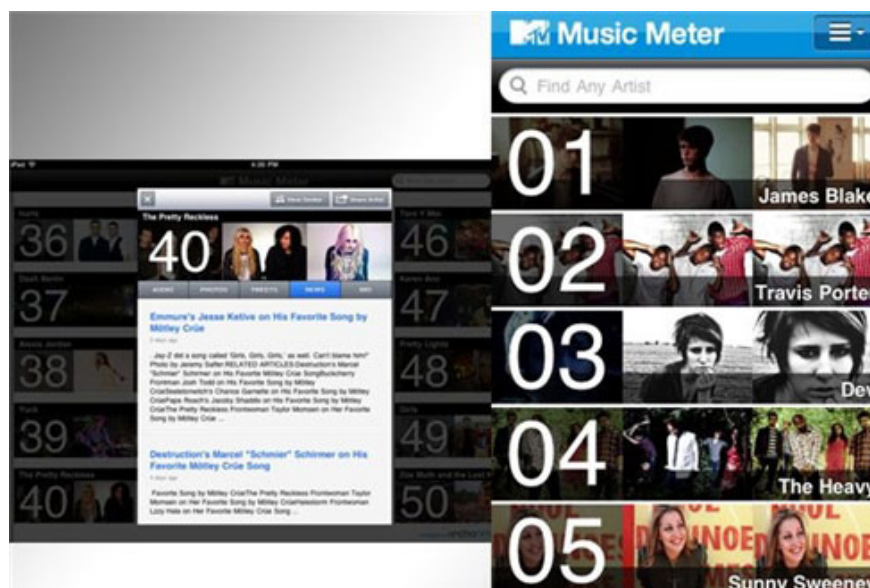

Your mission in the Land-a Panda game is to help a panda find the 'dream man' through a challenging adventure with cannons, obstacles and many coins to collect. This game has excellent sound and creative graphics.

8. Sonar

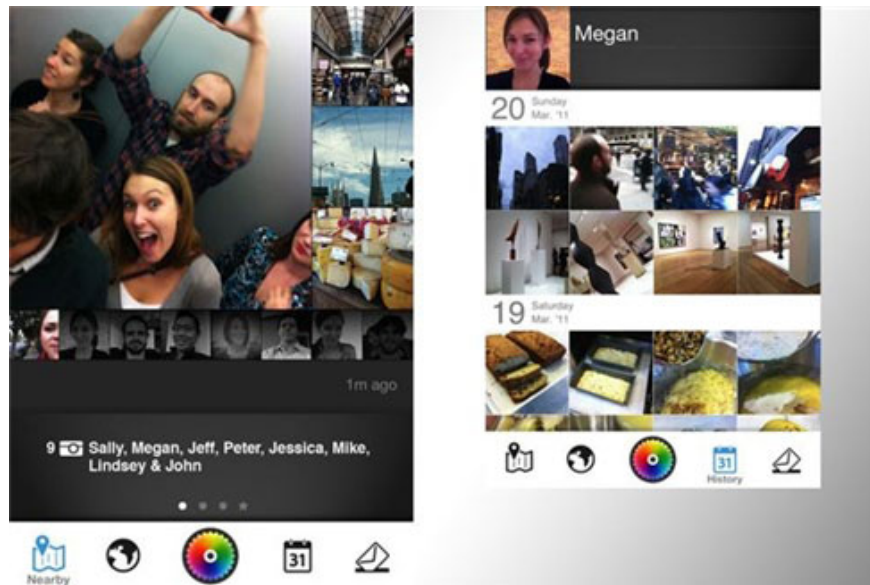

Sonar is a social savvy app that shows you how to connect with others around you by analyzing social networking accounts like Facebook, Twitter and Foursquare.

9. MTV Music Meter

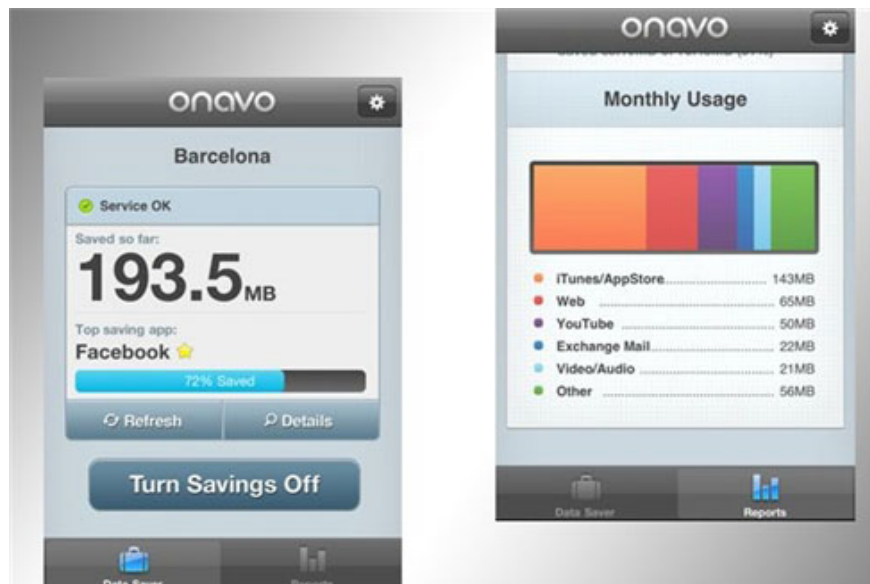

MTV's Music Meter application lets you search for new music with a list of artists updated daily. You can preview related artists, photos, new topics and even their messages.

10. Color

The Color app combines social networking and photography by creating a public photo album taken by your friends, and helping you create new relationships.

11. Onavo

Onavo runs in the background and compresses the amount of data downloaded from the server, saving you money.

12. Super 8

Super 8 for free in limited time, is a camera app for shooting movies and taking photos. You can perform actions such as changing effects and filters by swiping through the camera, playing videos by dragging the projector screen down.

13. Merriam-Webster

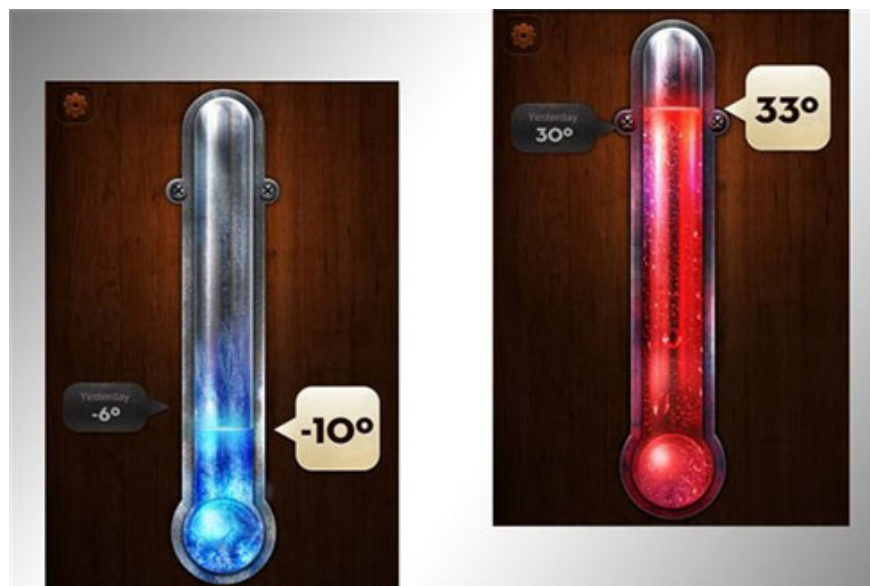

You can search for any vocabulary on iPhone and iPad with Merriam-Webster dictionary, or check the vocabulary of the day. This application is simple and easy to use, a useful voice search feature.

14. eBay Motors

EBay's Motors app lets you browse the list of all cars available on this page, with a few special options such as vehicle history reports from Experian AutoCheck and your vehicle information container.

15. Thermo

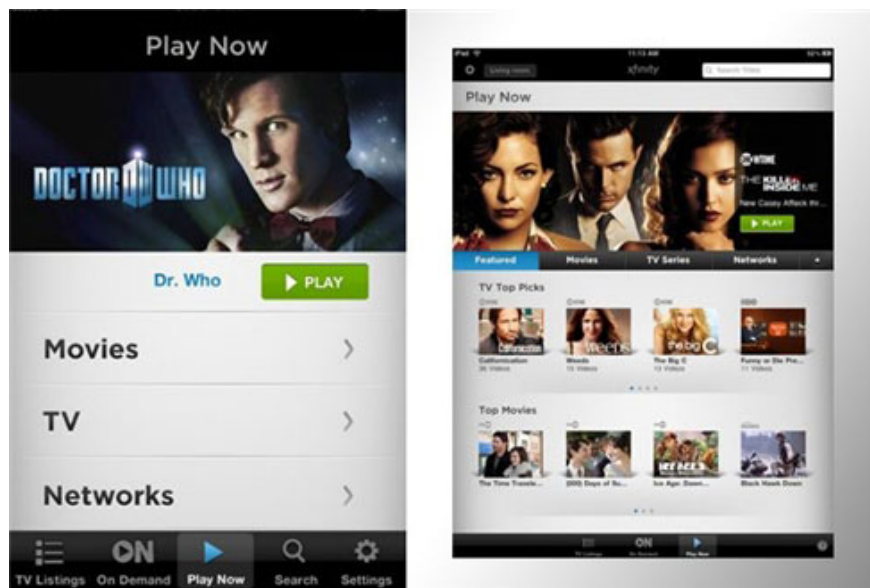

Another app to see the weather, Thermo is like a pocket thermometer in your iPhone, showing you not only the current external temperature, but also the display of temperature comparison the previous day.

16. HeyTell

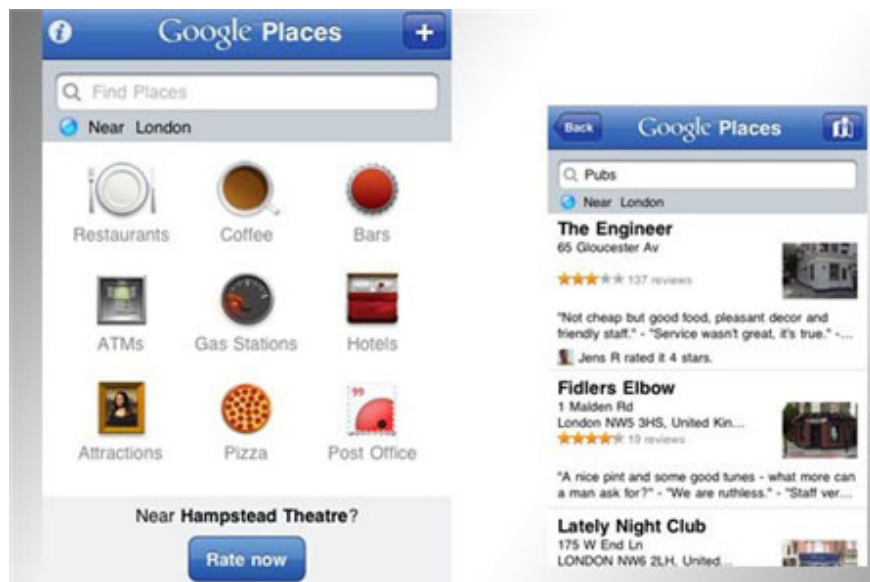

HeyTell turns your phone into a radio, allowing you to send voice messages to a friend or group via 3G, EDGE and Wi-Fi, including notifications when receiving new messages.

17. Xfinity

Dozens of on-demand TV and movie shows from HBO, Showtime, TNT and Cinemax channels are now available in the Xfinity app for iPhone and iPad, you can use the Wi-Fi connection to view.

18. Google Places

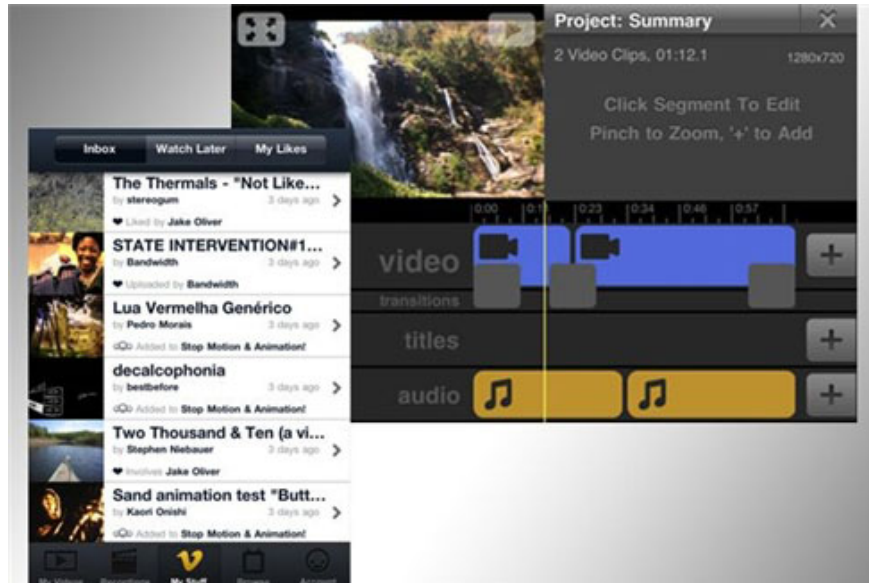

This application allows you to access Google's catalog of restaurants, cafes, bars and many places around the world, and can help you find places around you.

19. Audibly

Audibly is a public repository of almost 3,000 audio books (audiobooks), all for free for your iPhone and iPad. You can find all the classic titles, except for recent titles that are not as good as Twilight or the Harry Potter series.

20. Vimeo

The Vimeo app for iPhone in addition to standard features like uploading and browsing, also allows you to edit immediately and add transition effects, titles and music to the video clip before sharing with friends.

You finished reading the article "20 best apps of 2011 for iPhone, iPad" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.