

2022's Top Online Casino Apps

There are a ton of extraordinary online casino apps out there this year, and to try and choose between them is no easy task. In fact, you may have already come across this issue yourself - there is just too much choice.

This might not sound all too bad at first, but after a while, you will soon tire of not playing at the best establishments when it is well within your ability.

Fortunately, this specific task is something we have a knack for, and we are going to be letting you in on a few of the top options on the market that you are just going to love. Let's dive straight into it and take a look at 2022's top online casino apps.

Wild Casino

Wild Casino is exactly what you think; it's a casino that puts the spotlight on nature. This might not sound all too interesting at first, but give it a chance before you disregard this casino. In fact, many people find the aesthetic of Wild Casino to be incredibly appealing, and there is a good reason why it is one of the most popular games in 2022.

From the games to the web design, every little inch of the Wild Casino app is embellished with greenery, animals, and wild fauna, and it is one of the most unique casino designs we have seen to date.

This is going to be a great option for those of you that just want to get your hands on something different - there are very few online casino apps that look anything like this.

However, high-quality graphics are not the only thing that Wild Casino has to offer. Another aspect of Wild Casino's service that is commonly praised is the vast number of games they offer; having over 250 games to play at any one time is more than enough for the vast majority of people.

Wild casino offers something a little different at a time when every online casino looks the same, and if you want to flip the entire casino experience on its head, then checking out Wild Casino might just be a good idea.

10Bet/10CRIC

If you have been involved in the industry for a while, you could have probably guessed 10Bet was going to come up. 10Bet is commonly regarded as having one of the best online casinos in the world, and they have been a beloved company in the gambling industry for years.

10Bet's app comes with all of the features you would expect from any high-quality app; good customer support, well-designed, efficient - the list goes on. However, perhaps the most notable aspect of 10Bet's services is the vast range of games they offer.

10Bet is known for offering more games than almost any other casino out there, and their roster is likely going to include games you have never even heard of.

Almost any 10Bet app review you come across is just going to reiterate all of the same points we have mentioned here - its high number of games, good customer support, and easy-to-use interface are hot topics both for users and critics alike.

They also have another app called 10CRIC that acts as both an online casino and a betting hub, so if you want to get your hands on both, then going with 10CRIC might just be an amazing idea.

LasAtlantis

LasAtlantis is a modern online casino that is based around the ancient/fictional underwater city of Atlantis, and as you would expect, this makes room for some pretty incredible visuals. Immediately upon loading up their app you will feel immersed in the mind-blowing world they have created, and for the few hours that you will be playing, you too will feel like an Atlantean citizen.

Although, this is not LasAtlantis' only saving grace. Just like all of the casinos we have mentioned above LasAtlantis has everything you would want from a top-of-the-line casino app, and there are very few areas when they go wrong.

If you have ever asked anyone or googled what to look for in casinos, then everything that would have come up will be on full display at LasAtlantis, and they could perhaps be considered the quintessential online casino experience.

Something worth noting is that they do have somewhat of a lacklustre games collection when compared to some of the other entries on this list, and for those of you that like to have access to a wide number of games, this may even be a deal breaker.

This can mainly be summed up to the fact that it just takes a ton of time and effort to design every game as if it were submerged thousands of metres below the ocean, and to maintain the high-quality visuals that they are known for, this is just not a process that can be rushed.

Nevertheless; LasAtlantis still has more than enough games for the casual casino player, and if you are not all too bothered about their relatively small collection of games, then LasAtlantis can provide an experience that is akin to nothing else.

If you choose to go with any of the casino apps we featured on this list, we can almost guarantee you that they are going to be substantially better than anything you may be playing now, and you will soon come to find out what it is like to taste the best of the best.

Moreover, there is no rule saying you have to stick to one casino at a time. Feel free to sample all of our featured casinos out, and if you are still struggling to pick a favourite, you could just swap between them interchangeably depending on what you feel like on the day. Have fun.
