

31 things if you want to be independent in modern society you must know how to do it

Many of these 31 things are quite funny but when life is more and more modern, they become the most basic jobs that everyone needs to know.

In order to master your life, you need to master some basic skills. More or less, they are the most fundamental foundations of a "multi-talented" person - having a lot of skills and lots of things. Contrary to what you might have learned at school (a job that lives, a pile of jobs dies), "know-how" will help you solve a lot of problems in modern life rather than just specializing in one field. some area.

Although not yet complete and perhaps many people are still puzzled, the list of 31 things compiled by Marc and Angel page will definitely help you know more things you need to learn right now.

1. Fire: Fire produces heat and light - the two basic elements necessary for life. At some point in your life, knowing fire groups will definitely help you.

2. Computer use: Too basic for modern life. If you still don't know how to use it, learn immediately.
