With the advent of macOS Mojave, Mac users can now use animated wallpapers instead of static backgrounds like before. However, macOS does not have many animated wallpapers to use, but you can download it from the Internet. Here are 5 beautiful download wallpapers for macOS Mojave.

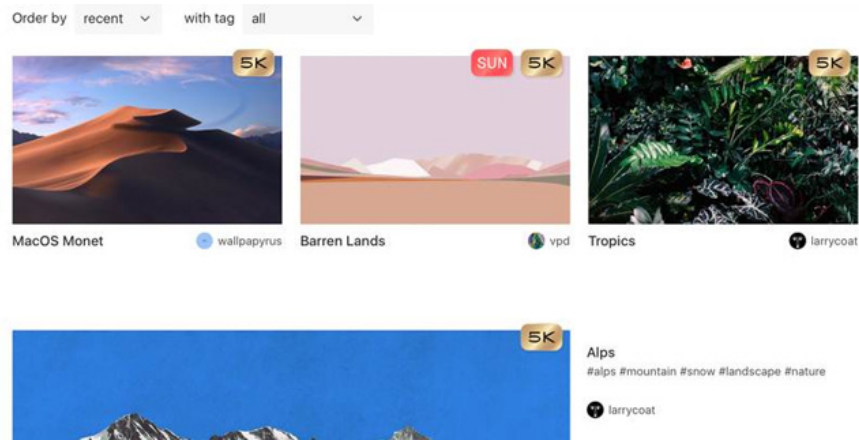

1. 10 latest features of macOS Mojave
2. 3 ways to downgrade to the old macOS version
3. How to install macOS Mojave on Windows 10

1. Dynwalls.com

If you search for animated wallpapers on the Internet, you'll see the name Dynwalls right on top of the search. The website has many free wallpapers from space images to cities around the world.

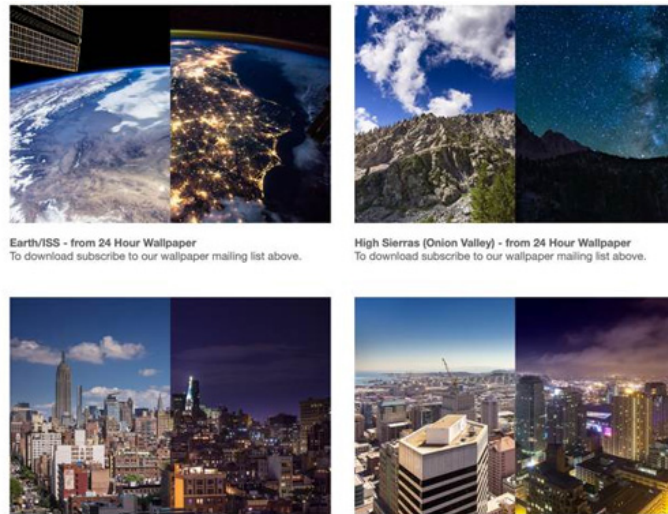

2. Dynamicwallpaper.club/gallery

Dynamic Wallpaper Club provides a free tool to create animated wallpaper to let you be creative. Without talent, you can completely download the wallpapers available in the website library.

This library is where users download animated wallpapers they have created. Since this is a user-created wallpaper, it may not be very beautiful and professional, but you can't find a website that has so many animated backgrounds.

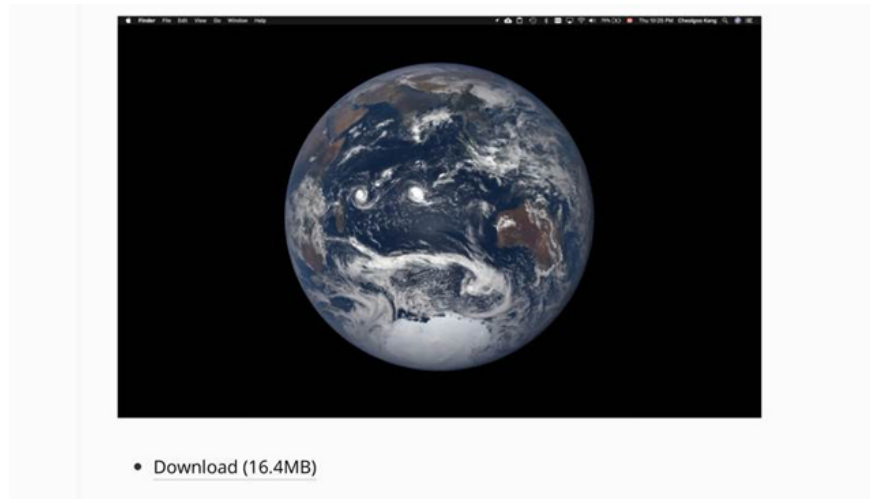

3. Jetsoncreative.com/mojave

Jenson Creative website has 4 animated backgrounds for users to download the entire city of San Francisco in 24 hours, International Space Station, view from High Sierras, panoramic Manhattan town of New York City in 24 hours.

The site promises to add 50 wallpapers available in the 24-hour wallpaper app. It's great but the 4 above wallpapers are also worth considering.

4. Genoapps.com

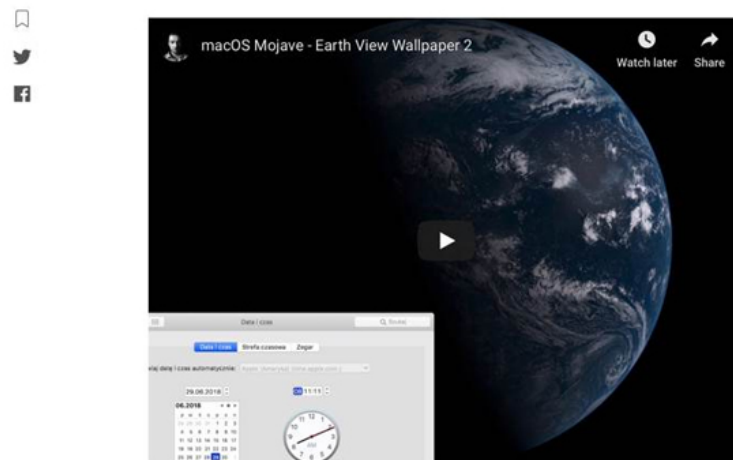

This site offers two animated wallpapers that are observed from satellites to earth for those who like space.

The websites above give you a variety of live wallpaper options, but if they are still not your taste, you can create your own wallpaper using the application called Dynpaper.

The application allows users to drag and drop images to create a wallpaper in the HEIC format that Apple uses for animated wallpapers. It will use the date and time from the image file name or EXIF data automatically.

1. How to automatically add EXIF copyright to photos

The application is free, but when creating a photo, it will add a watermark unless you purchase the application. The price to remove the watermark is 12 USD.
