

5 best Google Slides templates for teachers

Google Slides is one of the best and free presentation apps out there. This tool uses a simple approach that makes it quick and easy to create and present slides for teachers and education professionals.

The built-in templates are what make Slides even more useful. You can use the free templates to quickly create and share lessons with your students.

Google does provide some default templates for Slides, but they are nothing special and are not intended for teachers. Fortunately, there are third-party websites that offer some beautiful and functional Google Slides templates for teachers.

1. Notebook Lesson

As the name suggests, Notebook Lesson is a Google Slides template for creating lessons. As most students have to read at home due to the ongoing pandemic, Notebook Lesson will help teachers prepare homework and share them easily.

Notebook Lesson contains 24 slides in 5 different colors and includes graphics, icons, and models. All elements are editable and you can always add your personal touch. This template has lots of fun colors and is also easy on the eyes.

2. Cute Geometry Presentation

In the classroom, teachers use the blackboard to write notes and draw shapes with chalk. The Cute Geometry Presentation template mimics the familiar blackboard on a digital screen. In addition, there are a number of characters that are designed to be fun to appeal to young children.

This Google Slides teacher template contains several icons, images, maps, graphs, tables, and infographics to choose from. You can also design your character if you want. Cute Geometry Presentation contains 25 beautifully designed slides that can be easily edited.

3. EOY Awards

Awards are a way to promote healthy competition and encourage high achieving students. All you have to do is run the tests using some online tools and reward your students with something they can remember forever. In schools, these awards come in all shapes and sizes such as certificates, trophies and trophies. EOY Awards is a Google Slides template for teachers who want to award the best students.

There are a total of 8 slides in this template and they are all designed to look slightly different. You can combine slides to create prizes for various activities or fields such as academics, quizzes, crafts, etc. Can easily change themes, background colors, add and remove elements from the slides.

4. Education Whiteboard

Are you looking for a simple and professional class Google Slides template? Education Whiteboard may fit your needs. This template is like a whiteboard where you can change the text, pictures and even colors. In addition, the 25 slides contain various examples such as maps, graphs, and even Gantt charts.

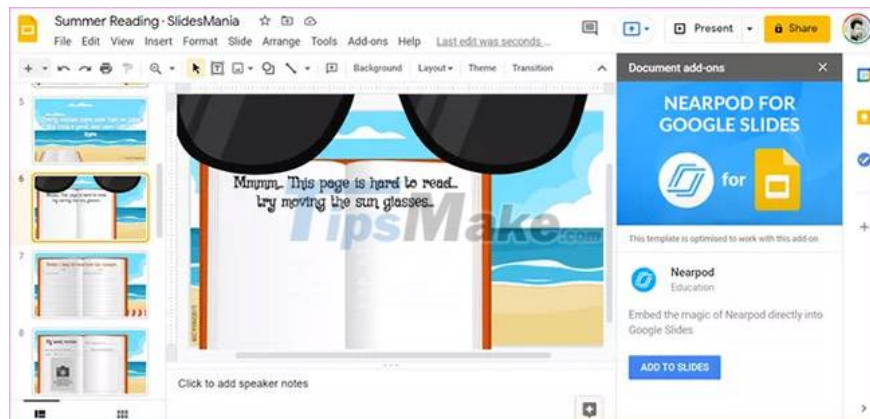

You can also use these same slides in teacher-parent meetings or even internal teacher-to-teacher meetings. The whiteboard app is a versatile tool that's also part of modern video conferencing and online meeting apps like Google Meet and Zoom.

Like previous Google Slides templates for teachers, this one also has a variety of fonts (80 fonts to be exact), maps, and other elements to choose from.

5. Summer Book Club

There are many things one can do when there is no other choice but to stay at home. One way to 'kill' time and learn new things is to read books. The Google Slides Summer Book Club Teacher Template has been designed to inspire children to read.

The presentation comes with 16 slides designed to look like a book set on the beach. You can add text, images or other elements easily. The interesting thing is that there is a slide with hidden content. The only way to read it is to pull down the top sunglasses.

You finished reading the article "5 best Google Slides templates for teachers" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.