Dota Auto Chess: Gamers make mistakes when playing

1. Reroll too many times

Still know if you can't get a unit, Reroll is necessary, especially when you're building a good squad. However, if you are new to the game, you should not have much Reroll, each round will have 5 generals. If you use the Reroll feature, you will have 5 other options, but you will have to spend 5 gold for each Reroll. That will significantly reduce your funds. So the advice is that if you have a lot of money then it will be reroll to get new choices.

2. Choose an unreasonable hero

This is an error that you can use Reroll to be able to choose, but if you do not have a spare, you should choose the best possible for your team. There have been many gamers complaining that they could not find a good squad while participating in Dota Auto Chess.

So overcome by choosing the appropriate lineup according to the situation and see if the heroes that are about to match can match what they have on the board. And one more thing is that you should not use a fixed line like at the beginning of the game to have the best team.

3. Choose two demons for your squad

Demon is one of the Hero classes that can deal strong damage and damage to enemies, however, you should only choose one Demon for your squad to be able to do the most damage. You can then choose either Doom or Shadow Fiend, both of which will best buff your team.

4. Control the amount of gold available

This is how DotA Auto Chess players can earn an extra amount of money after every basic round, it's like a profitable bank when you can deposit money and receive interest. If you have consecutive winning or losing sequences, the amount of gold you receive will be higher, from these chains you can spend gold so that it is reasonable to have a decent deposit.

There will be an important part here: Interest to earn and Base Income . Interest to earn is the amount of money you will receive based on the total amount of gold you have. For example, if you have 50 gold, the amount of gold you receive will be 5 gold after each battle, and if the total gold you have is over 50 gold then we will have up to 5 gold Base Income after each game.

5. Arrange an unreasonable lineup

It can be said that the arrangement of the lineup will make up 60% for whether or not you win, there are only a few effective teams that most Dota professional gamers use Auto Chess. on his chessboard. And you can refer to some teams like.

1. Line-up formation: This is a basic formation and tends to be close to melee so that the round starts as quickly as possible.
2. Corner team: The most effective team with the squad for wide area damage like Mage and Dragon, you can arrange the Mage mages behind the defensive line to use the skill to destroy the enemy without fear of breaking the lineup.
3. Lineup of two rows: Divide the two groups on both sides of the board, which can be used for a lineup that deals large damage or a continuous damage formation like Troll or Hunter. Also divided into two rows can help you divide the amount of damage that enemy troops inflict on your lineup, then can gradually reduce the opponent's chess pieces.
