

6 websites / tools to watch videos on YouTube without ads

Here are quite interesting websites / tools that allow you to watch videos on YouTube without having to directly access the world's largest online video platform today and not be annoyed by the advertising. .

Here are quite interesting websites / tools that allow you to watch videos on YouTube without having to directly access the world's largest online video platform today and not be annoyed by the advertising. .

1. Adless Tube - youtubenoad.com

Adless Tube has a pretty similar interface to YouTube but has absolutely no ads and user comments. Besides, users can disable the automatic video playback feature to be able to freely watch and watch the current video.

To view videos on Adless Tube, users simply enter the keyword or URL into the search bar and press Enter. Your favorite video will appear, enjoy it.

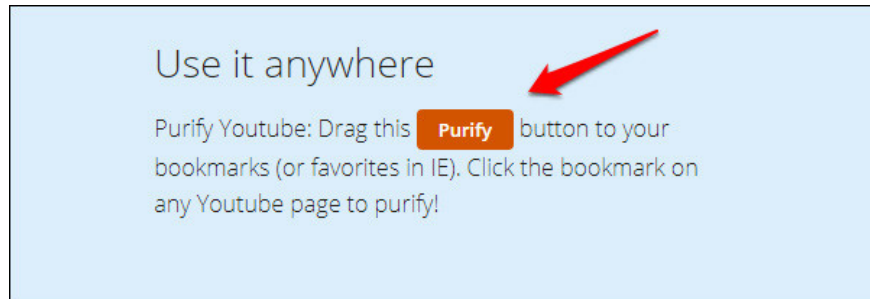

However, the amount of video on the website is still quite limited due to copyright issues.

How to share YouTube videos privately with a password

2. ViewPure.com

Similar to Adless Tube, ViewPure is also a website with the feature to remove ads and comment when watching videos. In addition, this site also supports users to save and review the videos you have liked on YouTube with the Purify utility. To activate this function, users just need to drag the 'Purify' key and drop it into the bookmark bar on Chrome or Firefox.

ViewPure does not offer suggested videos on the home page interface. To watch videos, you just need to enter the search keyword or URL, the related videos will be displayed.

ViewPure's interface is quite simple and easy to use.

3. Toogl.es

Toogl.es only displays videos, advertisements or anything else that is removed. The interface of Toogl.es is quite simple, in the upper left corner is the search bar and the list of different categories makes it easy for users to follow their favorite videos. In addition, Toogl.es also provides dark mode for users.

Toogl.es's download speed is quite fast. To simplify the usage process, Toogl.es also includes a separate Chrome extension.

4. YT Instant - ytinstant.com

YT Instant is essentially a search and discovery tool exclusively for YouTube, as soon as the first words of the keyword are typed out, the tool will start providing real-time video for you. In addition, YT Instant also provides users with many other interesting new related videos.

This tool also contains no ads to give users the best experience.

5. Tube - Minimal YouTube version

This is a YouTube video search site with an extremely simple interface that shows only a search bar on a white background.

After entering the search keyword, a series of links to related videos will be displayed according to the interface quite similar to Google Search but much simpler. When accessing these links, you will be able to watch videos that do not contain ads and comments.

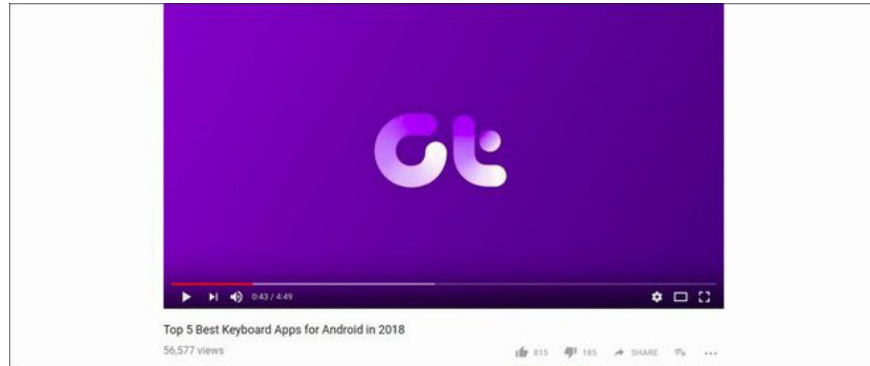

This website is suitable for smartphone users and has a slow, unstable Internet connection.

You can test Tube here.

1. Tube

6. DF YouTube

In essence, DF YouTube is an extension of the Google Chrome browser that allows users to control activity when using YouTube. Users can disable the next auto-run feature, turn off subscriptions (subscribe), hide list of suggested videos and comment sections for YouTube to download videos faster, providing a better experience for people. use.

Download the DF utility YouTube link for Chrome.

1. DF YouTube

See more:

1. How to separate audio, separate audio from videos in VLC and YouTube
2. How to delete YouTube history and ensure privacy
3. How to download YouTube videos to Android smartphones

You finished reading the article "6 websites / tools to watch videos on YouTube without ads" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.