1. The battery, super athlete, eagle eye . 15 "heterosexual" possesses the superpower of "superman"
2. Miraculous survival after free fall from a height of more than 5000 meters

Here are the luckiest people in the world in history that many people are surprised and jealous of.

Bill Morgan works as a truck driver in Melbourne, Australia. He had a serious accident, and was reported dead. But after 14 minutes, he miraculously resurrected the doctors.

After 12 days of coma, he suddenly regained consciousness when the family was considering withdrawing the breathing tube so that he could leave quietly. A year later, after newly engaged with his girlfriend, Mr. Morgan was lucky to win a jackpot worth $ 17,000.

Edwin E. Robinson , 62, is a blind man from a car accident. The rate of people struck by lightning is 1 / 12,000 and he is one of the few people struck by lightning. But the miracle happened, after being struck by lightning he not only did not die but his eyes became bright and visible. He became one of the luckiest people in the world.

Just winning the lottery once is very lucky, but it is unbelievable 4 times. And that happened to Joan R. Ginther , who won $ 10 million when she bought a $ 50 lottery ticket for the '$ 140 Million Extreme Payout' program in 2010.

Previously, she had won $ 5.3 million in 1993, won 2 million in 2006 and another 3 million in 2008.

Tsutomu Yamaguchi was the only survivor of the two atomic bombs in Japan in 1945. Mr. Yamaguchi was close to the explosion, in two times the US dropped nuclear bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki at the end of World War 2. .

Maarten De Jonge , 29, is a professional Dutch bicycle athlete who was lucky to escape in 2 catastrophic plane accidents. He booked flight tickets but canceled at the last minute.

This guy did not take flight MH370 to avoid a long transition. This flight has been missing somewhere in the Indian Ocean. In the summer of 2014, Maarten canceled the crashed flight MH17 and chose a later flight to save costs. Thanks to that, he escaped death within a short distance.

Frank Selak is a Croatian music teacher who became one of the lucky ones when he escaped from the "hand of death" 7 times. In 1962, he escaped death when his train crashed into a lake that killed at least 17 people. A year later, he crashed from the plane in an accident and was also fortunate to survive while 19 others died. Later, he escaped death in five car accidents.

Like a gift of compensation for the troubles he had to go through, in 2003, Selak won a $ 1 million prize after buying the lottery two days after his 74th birthday.
