

7 Ways to Fix IDM Not Capturing Youtube Links on Chrome, Firefox?

To fix the problem of IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome, Firefox at home. Please read the sharing of Hoang Ha PC to know what to do.

Update the latest version for IDM

Many customers have responded to TipsMake about the error of IDM catching links. Although they have installed IDM compatible with their computers, they still encounter interruptions and obstacles when downloading youtube links. In this case, you should check if Internet Download Manager is an old or new version. If it is an old version, you need to update immediately.

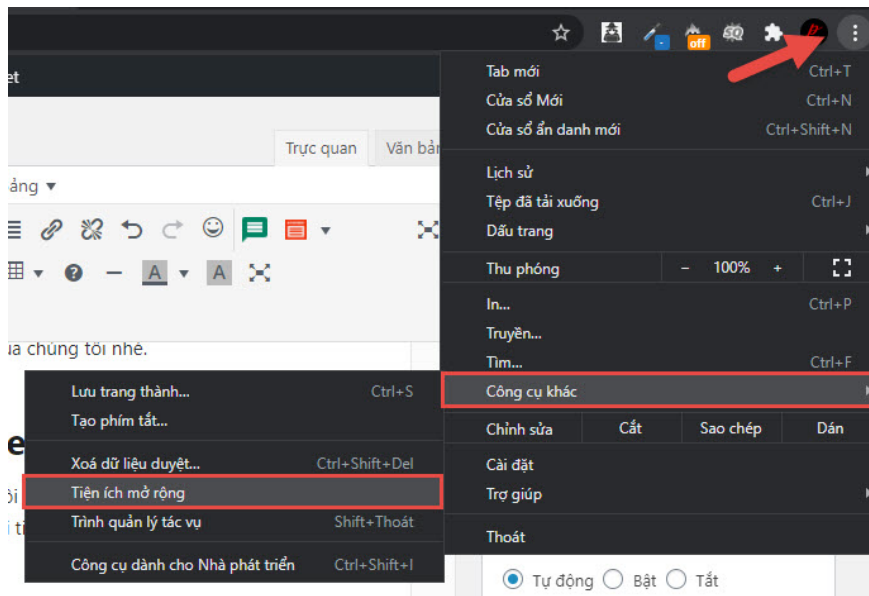

Because almost every day or week, browsers will continuously change small or large updates. This is the reason why IDM is difficult to catch links because of incompatibility. To download the latest version of IDM, you can access it right here. The download is completely free and only takes about 10MB for external memory. So, you can rest assured to download the new version so that IDM can easily catch youtube links.

Fix IDM error not catching Youtube links on Chrome by re-integrating IDM Extension

If you use Chrome browser and see that IDM does not catch video links, it means that there is a problem. In this case, it is likely that the IDM Extension is not installed. At this time, if you want to fix the error of IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome, follow these steps:

Step 1: Enter the following characters 'chrome://extensions/' in the browser address bar or access the Chrome extension.

Step 2 : Check if the name Internet Integration Module appears ? If not, it means you have not installed IDM Extension .

Step 3: Access the link here to download IDM and click 'Add to Chrome' to add it to the browser.

Picture 4 of 7 Ways to Fix IDM Not Capturing Youtube Links on Chrome, Firefox?

Step 4: Check the status of IDM by opening any video. When the screen displays as follows, it means you have successfully installed.

Step 1: Open the IDM application software on your computer and press the ' Options ' button, a popup will appear. Make sure the ' Basic ' or ' General ' tab is selected.

Step 2: At ' Options ', go to the file types tab (). Then, enter the file format you want to download in the Automatically start downloading the following file types box .

Step 3: Click 'OK' and restart the browser to complete the fix for IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome.

Fix IDM error not catching Firefox and Coc Coc links by reintegrating IDM Extension

- IDM utility is installed on the browser
- The browser needs to be checked to allow link capturing in IDM Settings.

- Make sure MP3, MP4 extensions are added to the allowed file types for download.

IDM Integration Module extension on Firefox

IDM Integration Module utility on Coc Coc

TẢI PHẦN MỀM

Check compatibility between browser and IDM

Many of you use cracked versions or outdated software that is not updated, making IDM incompatible with the browser.

And the best way is that you should use the latest version of IDM, and if possible, you should not use the Crack version.

To check if your IDM version is at the latest version, open IDM and select ' Help ' => ' Update to new version '

Check if IDM is added to the browser?

Many of you wonder why IDM cannot catch the video link after downloading it. Actually, after completing the download process, IDM has automatically added itself to the browser. But that does not mean that IDM has been integrated with the browser. Therefore, you should fix the error of IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome, Firefox in the following way.

First, click on ( <chrome://extensions/> ) to see the installed extensions. Next, move to the section and see if the status is ON or OFF . If the screen shows OFF status , turn it ON so that IDM can catch the link.

Picture 13 of 7 Ways to Fix IDM Not Capturing Youtube Links on Chrome, Firefox?

In case you can't find IDM Integration Module, go to the Menu to download the extracted utility according to the direction . Then, select the file named IDM integration is complete. How to fix IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome, Firefox like this is quite simple. You don't have to spend a lot of time or money like going to the store to fix it.

Uninstall IDM and reinstall from scratch

If you do the above methods but fail to fix the error of IDM not catching Youtube links on Chrome, Firefox. At this point, you only have one way left: completely uninstall IDM and reinstall it from the beginning. To download Internet Download Manager, you just need to access the link here. The download process is very fast and completely free so you can immediately have a good IDM catching links.

You finished reading the article "7 Ways to Fix IDM Not Capturing Youtube Links on Chrome, Firefox?" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.