

8 great children's channels on YouTube help children play and sing, learn English happily

Here are the top 8 useful YouTube channels to help children easily learn English while still being able to play happily.

With the development of technology and the Internet, parents can let their children get used to and learn English at home via online channels, especially through YouTube.

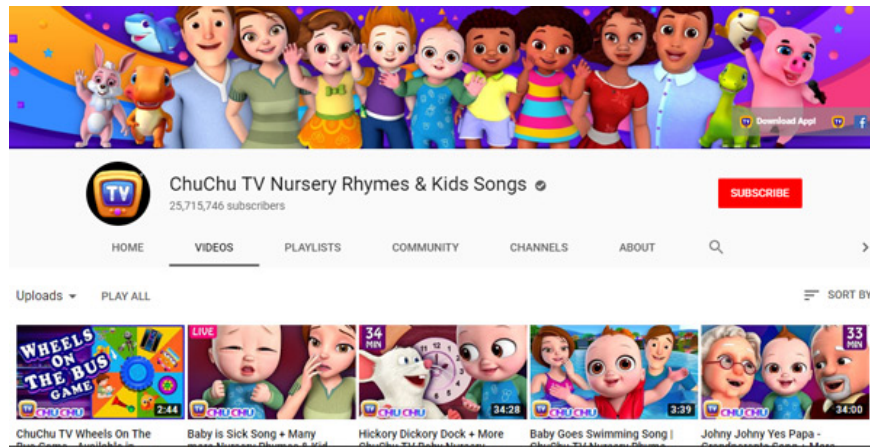

Here are the top 8 useful YouTube channels that make it easy for children to learn English while still being able to play happily, invite you to consult.

Cocomelon - Nursery Rhymes

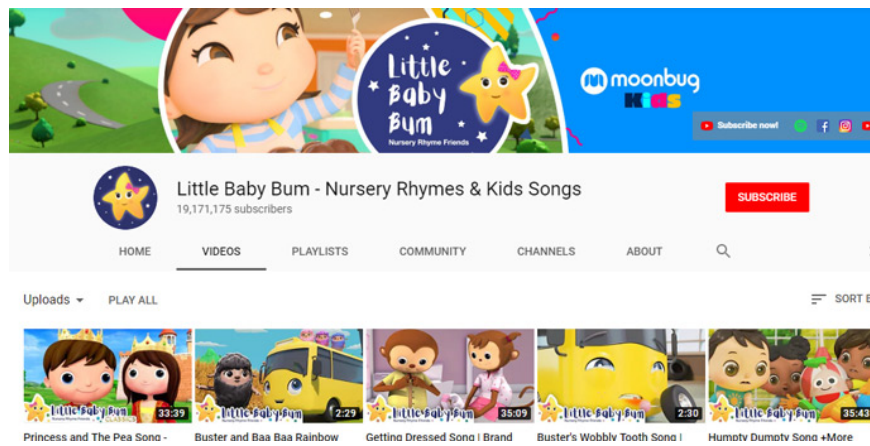

The videos on this channel are all fun English songs along with eye-catching 3D graphics, so it is easy to attract your baby's attention and help them become familiar with English faster. The lyrics shown below follow the karaoke form to help children see the lyrics and sing along.

ChuChu TV

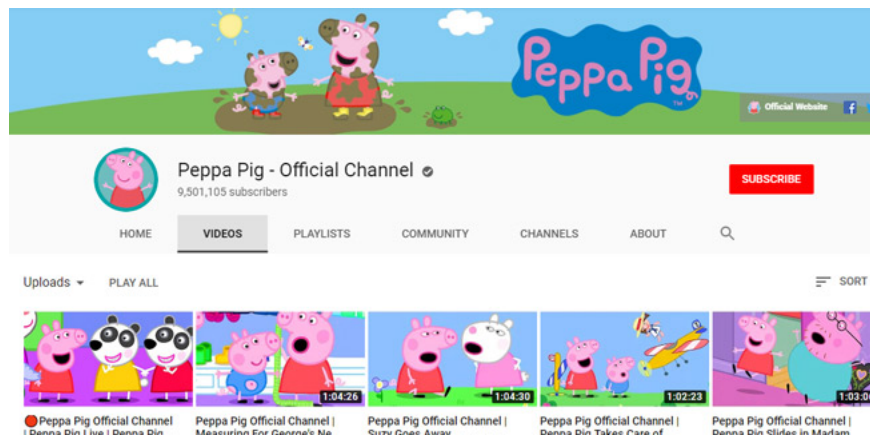

This channel has many good, fun children's songs about the alphabet, colors, family members . accompanied by cute and lively images that help children have more interest in learning English.

Little Baby Bum

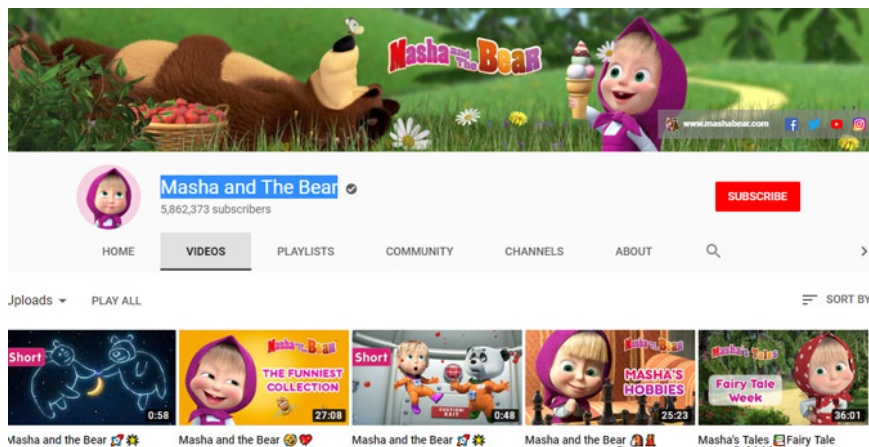

This YouTube channel brings together many simple English songs with animated 3D animal images that make kids love and sing along.

Peppa Pig

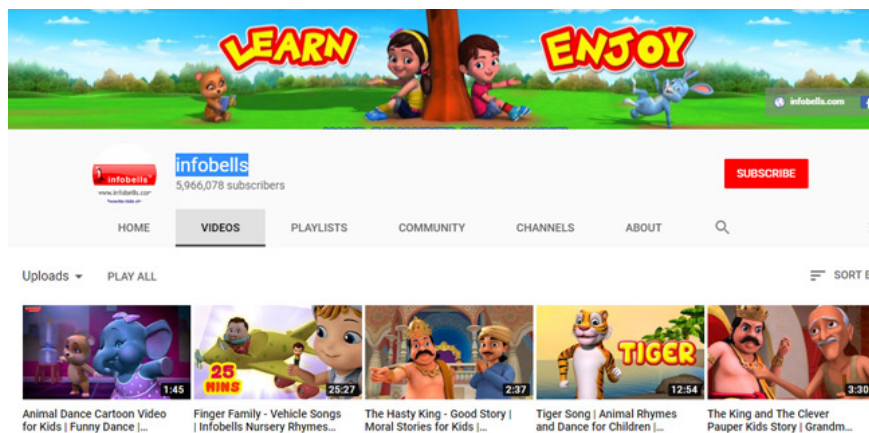

The fan of the popular animated film Peppa Pig certainly cannot ignore this YouTube channel. Through each video, the child will learn new vocabulary through interesting and close-to-life stories that the character in the story goes through such as camping, hiding and playing, playing water .

Masha and The Bear

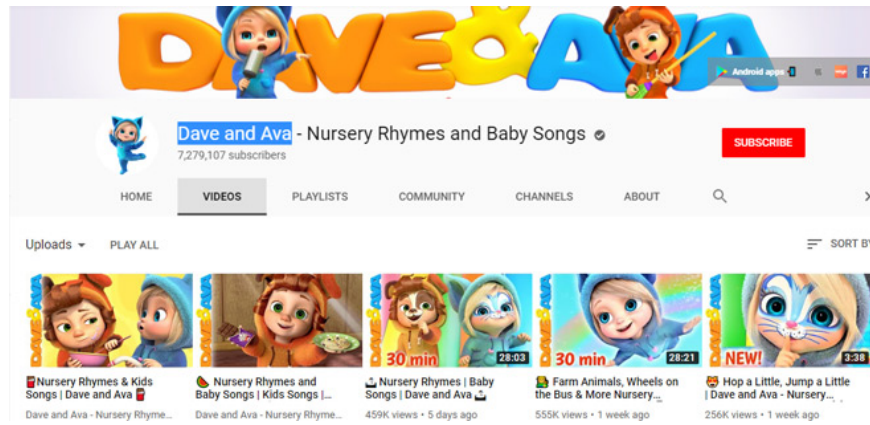

Masha and The Bear is a YouTube channel that gathers episodes about the exciting and funny adventure of little Masha and the giant bear. Here, the young people not only enjoy the passion of animation, but also can improve their listening and reading skills early on.

Infobells

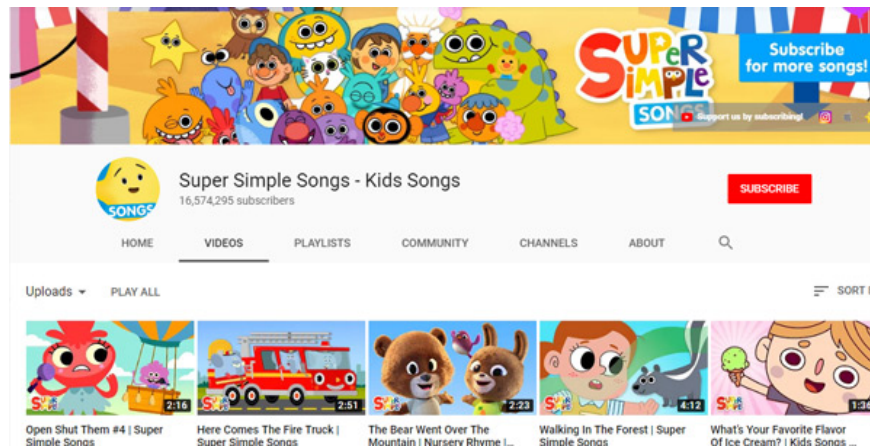

Each video in this YouTube channel is a simple song about different close-to-life topics with funny pictures and subtitles below that can help children learn English vocabulary easily.

Dave and Ava

Here, the children can sing along the wonderful and funny melodies with two lovely characters, Dave and Ava. Children can both play and learn ABC alphabet pronunciation, numbers .

Super Simple Songs

The videos on this YouTube channel use simple songs as accompaniment music and integrate into different lessons about the importance of family and friendship for children.

1. 6 safe watching apps for kids on Android and iPhone
2. The best tablets for children 2019

You finished reading the article "8 great children's channels on YouTube help children play and sing, learn English happily" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.