3. Beautiful white teeth without using chemicals

I have heard someone say that "Dress up is not only for me but also a way for you to respect the opposite". So know how important fashion style is to us.

The society is growing, the fashion style of the people is also more and more open and more open. With fashion, you can freely express your personality as personality, strong .

But you want to be a real gentleman, you need to follow the rules below. These rules are extremely simple and classic that any gentleman must know.

1. Shoes and belts must match

The same color shoes and belts will make you look classy, ??this is the right choice for the gentleman to attend serious events.

Be smart to choose the same color accessories as: brown with brown, black with black. Just pay a little attention, you'll get a different look from everyone.

2. Don't mix too many patterns

The pattern details on clothes create accents for the outfit, helping the outfit become more eye-catching. However, combine them to the right level, don't overdo it and make your outfit look ridiculous and your eyes look like a chameleon.

3. Obey the event dresscode

Follow the guidelines in the invitation letter. If the invitation requires you to wear a black tie, then you must wear a black tie. If the invitation is "formal" dress, you will need a suit or suit.

If the owner of this party has asked guests to wear such costumes, it is best to follow their wishes, to avoid making them vexed. If you want to break the way, go against the style of people to create prominence in the crowd, you're wrong, your job will not be appreciated by anyone.

4. Don't wear shorts with a jacket

The balance of clothing is also a consideration when choosing clothes on you. Choose a suit to make the length of the pants and the coat part match.

This means you can't wear baggy sailor pants with a t-shirt. Similarly, you should not wear a big jacket over your pants but your knees are not over.

5. Please choose the appropriate color for each season

In addition to the costume material, the color of the dress also needs to be chosen according to the season. If the summer is sunny and the sky is clear, choose the cool clothes, bright colors. But in the cold winter, these colors are definitely not suitable.

We often think that fashion has nothing to do with the weather, but in fact it has a very close relationship. Bright colors are always for the beautiful days, and the "quiet" colors like olive, navy or gray will match the murky weather, not seeing the sun anywhere.

6. Do not put the last button

This is a very important note in the style of dress for men.

When wearing a vest, the last button should not be installed to make your outfit look ridiculous. Create a feeling of tightness in the waist, like a woman wearing a corset too.

Besides, this rule also originates from a rather funny sentence about the fat king Edward VII (ruled from 1906 to 1910). At that time, wearing a suit was becoming popular, but because of the fat, the king could not install the second button.

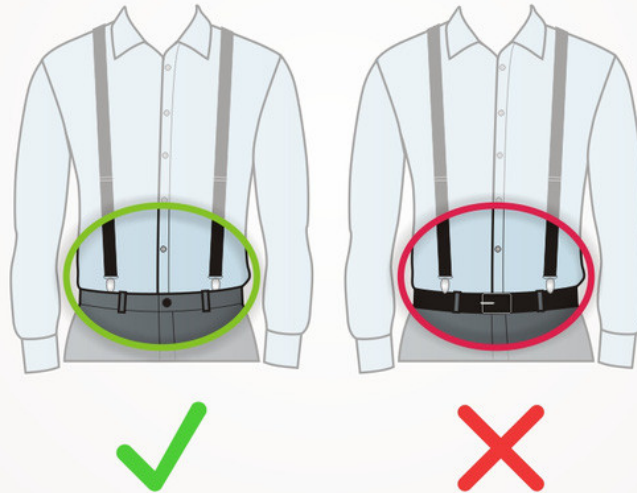

Therefore, as if to show respect to King Edward VII, the aristocracy and the masses in England and the British colonial countries all followed that habit. Gradually, the removal of this last button became more popular in other countries and was made into a convention when the gentlemen wore suits.

7. Belts do not come with trouser belts
