Love for children is the same, however, parents cannot deny that there are too many differences when raising their first and second children.

1. The birth of a first child is a fear of clumsiness, clumsiness of unknown things, but to the second child, you will learn how to accept the inevitable.

Anh yêu, em nghĩ là em sắp sinh rồi!

Em chắc chứ?

Làm sao mà em biết được???

2. The first-born baby helps parents get invaluable knowledge, so it is easier to solve for the second child.

3. Baby album begins when mother is still not clear and is constantly being added with extremely positive photos. To the second baby, she still took the shot but no longer often, perhaps only a few memorable moments.

4. The achievements of the first baby always get more attention, parents always follow every step of their development, cheer enthusiastically when they know how to crawl, walk, climb stairs .

Ôi!!! Bước đi đầu tiên của bé con nhà mình!

5. Older babies will be given more priority by their parents, have a beautiful wardrobe and are constantly being replaced. However, the following baby will wear anything that can be worn, inherited from older siblings and from other babies.

Anh nghĩ là chúng mình đã mua quá nhiều quần áo rồi đấy vợ ạ!

KHÔNG!
Công chúa nhỏ của em luôn phải xinh đẹp nhất!

6. Bacteria seem to be just a problem with the first baby .

7. Safety guarantees are different stories in each child .

8. The concept of risks, the danger is also different.

không thể nuôi
đâu con!

9. The first snack meal of the first child requires little care from the parents, the study must be thorough, the food must be fresh and delicious by the mother.

thực phẩm bổ dưỡng nhất
để tự mình nấu cho con bữa
ăn tuyệt hảo

10. The baby always wears clean and beautiful outfits, replaced by his parents if he has milk, food or small stains. The child is 'less' clean, can freely play with stains all day until he is washed clean.

Bé con, con bị dính
bùn rồi đấy! Rửa chân

11. As soon as the second baby is born, your older child must learn to share.

La-la-la...

After all a bit of inadvertent 'negligence' with a second baby, there is one thing that will definitely increase and never stop in your family's life .

Mức độ hạnh phúc - 100%
