

AAG marine fiber optic cable has a fifth incident in 2017

AAG international fiber optic cable route on the route from TP. Ho Chi Minh went abroad and had an unexpected incident on November 7.

AAG international fiber optic cable route on the route from TP. Ho Chi Minh went abroad and had an unexpected incident on November 7. Operators in Vietnam have confirmed this information. Including this time, the AAG submarine optical cable met 5 times in 2017.

New AAG international fiber optic cable had a problem on October 12 and it took 10 days to get it fixed on October 22.

A few days ago, another international fiber optic cable line, SMW-3, also had a problem and it was not until December 2, 2017 that it was completed.

Map of AAG marine optical cable route.

VNPT network is currently cooperating with international partners to identify the causes and take measures to deal with and troubleshoot the problem with the AAG marine optical cable route.

Currently, the timing of troubleshooting AAG fiber cable has not been determined. The speed of Vietnam Internet connection going international during this time will certainly be affected, especially during peak hours, many people access.

AAG - Asia America Gateway is an optical fiber cable connecting Internet traffic from Asian countries to the United States, with a total length of 20,000 km.

While waiting for the network to handle the problem, to surf the web faster you can refer to some ways to speed up the Internet below.

1. Change DNS and use DNS to be able to surf faster
2. Internet acceleration 20% faster in Windows
3. How to speed up Internet connection with cFosSpeed
4. The best, fastest DNS list of Google, VNPT, FPT, Viettel, Singapore

You finished reading the article "AAG marine fiber optic cable has a fifth incident in 2017" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.