

Apple began retailing the Mac Pro wheels, priced at the same price as an iPhone 11

Apple has now begun retailing the Mac Pro 2019 wheels and stand.

Apple has now begun retailing the Mac Pro 2019 wheels and stand. Because the computer is not cheap, its accessories are also very expensive. Even retail price is even higher than the price you choose when you buy with Mac Pro.

If you buy a Mac Pro 2019 and choose to come with the wheel set, then it will only cost you $ 400 more for this set of wheels. But if you buy a set of wheels separately, in order to replace the broken ones, it will cost up to $ 699, the equivalent of an iPhone 11.

Besides, Apple also retail of Mac Pro stand, for $ 299. In case you bought a Mac Pro 2019 with a wheel, but changed your mind to switch to a base so that the computer stood firmer and didn't run around the room. Because the Mac Pro 2019 wheel sets do not have brakes or switches to help it stay still.
