

Apple brought Vietnam to the list of iPhone 5S sales from November 15

Along with iPad Mini Retina screens, Apple today also announced that Vietnam and the Philippines are the two countries preparing to sell iPhones 5S and 5C.

Along with iPad Mini Retina screens, Apple today also announced that Vietnam and the Philippines are the two countries preparing to sell iPhones 5S and 5C.

Currently, genuine iPhone 5S and 5C are available in many Asian countries such as Thailand, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Singapore, China, Korea, Taiwan, etc. This iPhone duo will be available in Vietnam and Philippines from November 15 through Viettel, Vinaphone and major domestic distributors.

Vietnam and the Philippines are the next two Asian countries to sell genuine iPhones.

In terms of price, Viettel is the lowest priced distributor when selling iPhone 5S from VND 15.8 million and iPhone 5C from VND 13.4 million (16GB version of the network). FPT has the highest selling price (5S from VND 17.6 million, 5C from VND 14 million) but includes a gold warranty package (falling and falling into the country are exchanged) and not subject to charge terms 3G like a network.

Although it is near the time of genuine iPhone sales, some portable sales systems in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City still maintain prices a few hundred to a million higher than genuine ones. Shop owners said the price of iPhone 5S and 5C could be reduced further after genuine products were on the market.

You finished reading the article "Apple brought Vietnam to the list of iPhone 5S sales from November 15" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
