In today's modern life, each of us has a large amount of budget expenditures that can be eliminated or at least can be reduced somewhat. Sometimes, there are some cases where you are unaware that you are "wasting" money, so reconsider your money reasonably. Many small amounts can add up very quickly. Here's a list of 20 things you might be wasting money on. Let's TipsMake.com find out if you are wasting your money on what!

Bottled water

Bottled water can be very expensive. If you want to drink filtered water, buy a water filter and reuse an old bottle to store water. By doing so, you also contribute to protecting the environment because you don't use too many plastic bottles.

Products of famous brands

Do you remember the last time you bought something mainly because of its brand? Many people often do so. Find yourself the equivalent products of smaller brands.

Jewelry

Obviously, jewelry is a very cool fashion accessory on some occasions but should you use your savings to buy them? Probably not.

The shoes you don't need

Shoes are important and necessary items, but is a shoe worth around $ 1,000 really a must-have for you? Buy shoes that can help you run, walk, climb, look better, . A pair of expensive shoes is almost a waste of money.

The pastime is not good

Entertaining with bad entertainment is a waste of a lot of money. Try to find things that are more economical and fun like climbing, cycling and other sports.

Travel expenses

Do you often drive to where you want to go when you can fully walk or bike? Think about this before you get into the car and also consider renting a place close to work to save travel costs.

Food at the cinema

Buying food at the cinema can be very expensive. For example, candy boxes cost about $ 4 to $ 5, drinks of about $ 7 and popcorn are also around. So, skip the food here to save money.

ATM service fee

ATM service fees can accumulate very quickly. My bank ( the author of the article ) usually charges about $ 2 or $ 3 for every time I use the service. Sometimes, I have to pay about 5 dollars just to withdraw money. Look for another way to not pay ATM fees.

Buy lottery tickets

Agree it would be great to think about what you can do if you win the lottery, but the chances of winning are very low. Instead of using money to buy lottery tickets, save money.

The coffee

Someone always complained that he had no money, so every day he went to Starbucks to buy a latte. It makes no sense! Save money and make your own coffee at home.

Food available

At grocery stores or supermarkets there is always prepared food for you. However, try to cook for yourself or do some simple things. So, you can save money too.

Insurance

Insurance is often quite expensive, no matter what type of insurance you're talking about. Car insurance, health insurance, home insurance, life insurance, . almost all account for a large portion of your budget. Find out the price around and find the best price.
