

Avira AntiVir - Protect your computer in the simplest way

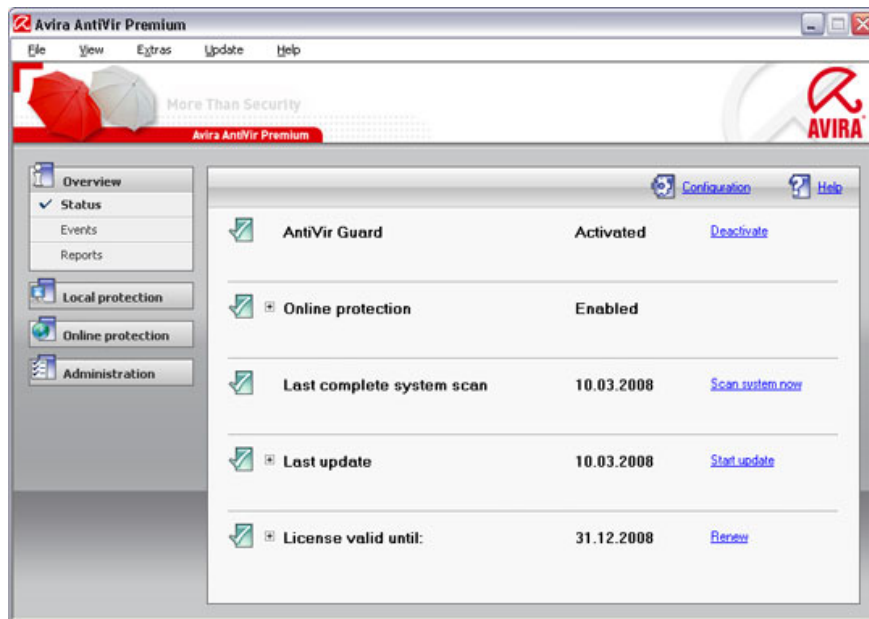

'Getting virus through every note' is word of mouth for users of Avira AntiVir software, once installed on your computer, you can spread all worries about the virus.

" Getting virus through every note " is word of mouth for users of Avira AntiVir software, once installed on your computer, you can spread all worries about the virus.

>>>AVG announced the 2011 security suite

Unbelievably easy to use

Unlike most anti-virus programs that often make it difficult for computer users to display messages continuously, running a commonly used program is also reported . With AHeAD technology, Avira AntiVir will actively analyze files are properly and automatically disabled if a computer is found to be harmful, even to vius on a USB disk or from a computer website.

Avira AntiVir Premium version

Immediately after installing Avira AntiVir on your computer, the software will automatically update the latest features, automatically scan all drives in your computer and start the task of 'guarding' your computer. . Then, antivirus software. In particular, it also has a dedicated mode for laptops or gamers, helping users to optimize the performance of the device or specific needs.

Avira AntiVir's work window is simple, anyone can control Avira, whether you are a beginner or an experienced user.

Rich features

Avira AntiVir Premium version will help your computer equipped with professional protection features, strong enough to fight viruses, malware, worms, trojans, adware, spyware and phishing scams. It will silently check all files before they are opened, and prevent them as soon as they are trying to get into your computer. This is also done for sending and receiving programs (email), the MailGuard feature checks for viruses in received and sent emails.

For users who like to surf the web, especially strange websites, the WebGuard feature will be a solid protection barrier for your computer against viruses, worms or any other threats (phishing website The island gets bank account information, email password, etc. that are hidden in the website you are opening.

With the more advanced Avira Premium Security Suite version, your computer will be equipped with a solid firewall to remove junk emails, control phishing emails, create system recovery discs in school worst case, backup important data; Of course, it still has all the protection features available in the Avira AntiVir Premium version.

Moreover, with the Parental Control feature, users will easily block malicious websites for children, or gaming sites, and can restrict the child's Internet access time.

You finished reading the article "Avira AntiVir - Protect your computer in the simplest way" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.