Samsung Chromebook tops the bestselling laptop list on Amazon.

Netbooks are "out of date" after Acer and Asus both claim to stop production this year, but low-cost laptops are generally attractive to users. In the list of recent best-selling notebooks, Amazon was surprised when the Samsung Chromebook model ranked first. This product surpassed Apple's MacBook and other new Windows 8 models.

This is good information for Samsung as well as Google while experts are surprised by Chrome operating system which is quite "sink" only a few months after its launch.
