

Bkav 2018 uses artificial intelligence to detect viruses and protect computers

To protect users from the attack of virtual money-digging codes, the manufacturer has used cloud computing technology, integrated artificial intelligence (AI), Anti-CoinMiner feature to help speed scanning. Bkav 2018 virus increased 150% compared to the previous version.

To protect users from the attack of virtual money-digging codes, the manufacturer has used cloud computing technology, integrated artificial intelligence (AI), Anti-CoinMiner feature to help speed scanning. Bkav 2018 virus increased 150% compared to the previous version.

All features, signs, unusual behavior of applications, executable files on the computer system are recorded by real-time monitoring system in Bkav 2018. The data will be multiply create integration in Bkav 2018 (AI Antivirus) to synthesize, analyze and indicate possible hazards such as being monitored by spyware, deleted data or stolen accounts . from which The command to process, block and destroy malicious code will be issued.

Bkav's Vice President in charge of Anti Malware, Vu Ngoc Son, said Bkav 2018 can help users to completely prevent malicious code and new variants from appearing continuously thanks to the integration of High-end technology has grown over the past 10 years and added artificial intelligence.

Refreshed with Microsoft's Fluent Design language, Bkav 2018 interface is user-friendly, easy to use.

Bkav2018 is integrated with Anti Ransomware technology to help users fight extortion codes, while Anti Adware technology kills hidden ad codes in browser plugins.

In the face of the explosion of virtual money-digging codes in recent times, Bkav 2018 can automatically remove malicious code to dig virtual money without updating its new identity by being equipped with anti-malicious code technology. Anti-CoinMiner virtual money.

Bkav 2018 still has a price of VND 299,000 for a 1-year license. Starting on 16/01/2018, copyrighted customers will be upgraded automatically and for free to the new version.

See more:

1. How did Bkav announce the details of the Face ID on the iPhone X?
2. Summary of effective Anti-Ransomware software
3. The Chrome gadget secretly exploits virtual money, making it slow

You finished reading the article "Bkav 2018 uses artificial intelligence to detect viruses and protect computers" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.