Black Shark, a company famous for its unique Gaming devices, recently surprised many people when it launched a power bank called Mobile Powe. This accessory device is designed extremely aggressively, extremely impressive and has a very good price, only 119 Yuan (about 390 thousand).

Black Shark's Mobile Power backup charger will have a capacity of 10,000mAh. The device has two USB-A ports and one USB-C port.

This product will support fast input / output technology of up to 18W, allowing devices to be plugged directly into the USB-C port for charging.

Mobile Power backup charger also supports switching the power source to be able to charge devices that require low charging power (such as bluetooth headsets, Apple Watch). Once there, users only need to press the green button 2 times.
