

Bphone 4 revealed information before the launch: There are 4 colors and one more cheap version

According to the information revealed, the upcoming Bphone 4 will have two more colors: blue, pink and multiple versions in different price segments.

Two new colors of Bphone 4

Yesterday (March 15), on the Bphone Group, there was a clip that appeared to be the first leaked images of Bphone 4. According to the image description from this clip, the next-generation Bphone model of CEO Nguyen Tu Quang may have 3 versions: Bphone 4, Bphone 4 Pro and one more cheap version.

Talking to ICTnews, Bkav's media representative also officially confirmed that the Bphone 4 smartphone model was added in pink and blue. Thus, Bphone 4 will have all 4 colors: black, white, blue, pink with many versions in different segments.

The addition of colors and version numbers in the new generation of Bphone shows that Bkav has given customers more choices and more accessible to customers than previous generations.

The person who released the clip above also said that Bphone 4 will have some changes in exterior design, such as Bphone 4 with rounded edges softer than the previous generation.

Previously, as ICTnews reported, on March 6, when sharing on his personal Facebook, Bkav CEO Nguyen Tu Quang announced as expected, Bphone 4 will officially launch on March 25 after nearly 1, 5 years since Bphone 3 was introduced.

Bphone new generation is confirmed to bring unlimited experience. This is the same slogan that this CEO chose for Bphone 4.
