1. Buy genuine vacuum where genuine?

To buy genuine home vacuum machines, good prices, you can go directly to the store, dealer of products to choose, or visit reputable e-commerce sites to order. However, each purchase method has its own advantages and disadvantages that you must consider before making a transaction.

Buy at stores, agents

Typically, customers often need to go directly to the stores, dealers selling vacuum machines to buy products. These stores may be agents that supply products from the manufacturers themselves, or electrical appliances - household appliances near the house.

Advantages

When shopping at stores or agents, you have the opportunity to see firsthand, to hold the product, to try out some of the device's basic features.

You can also listen to the advice from the seller directly to see if this product is suitable for preserving which foods, should use compatible food bags or equipment is picky?

In addition, the purchase from the store, the traditional dealer also helps you not to pay shipping costs because you are the one who brings the device directly for installation. You also know where to go when your vacuum equipment is damaged or in need of repair.

Defect

Vacuum machines in traditional stores often cost more expensive on online platforms from 10 - 20%. The reason is because the agents also have to pay the costs of space, management, product display, .

For customers who do not have much free time, it is impossible to directly go shopping and shopping.

In addition, traditional stores often do not have enough product display space. Therefore, the choice of products suitable for the purpose of customers will also be more limited.

Buy at e-commerce sites

Shopping on online shopping platforms is becoming an inevitable trend in a busy industrial society. Online shopping method itself also brings many benefits to customers.

Advantages

Shoppers will definitely save a lot of time for shopping. Just sit at home or work, find the type of vacuum you like and order, customers will have the product they seek to buy after a few days, even after a few hours.

The price of food vacuum equipment on e-commerce sites is also much cheaper than at media outlets, because online platforms do not suffer the costs of space, display or administration. physical. Not to mention that these sites often launch promotions, discount vouchers that are not found in any offline stores.

The choice of consumers on online sales sites will also be more diverse because all the goods they are offering are available on the website, not limited to the display range.

Defect

You will have to pay shipping charges when buying at e-commerce sites. However, many online sales platforms offer free shipping for customers with large orders. With a vacuum machine, you will most likely receive this support policy from the supplier.

You also do not have the opportunity to experience the product directly before making a purchase decision. But do not worry too much, because you absolutely can refer to the review, objective advice about the product on Google, Facebook or YouTube before making the final choice.

You also have a lot of risk when buying goods at reputable sales sites. So, you need to choose the famous online sales platforms, such as META.vn, Tiki or Lazada to buy goods.
