The most suitable champion to equip DTCL Thief Gloves

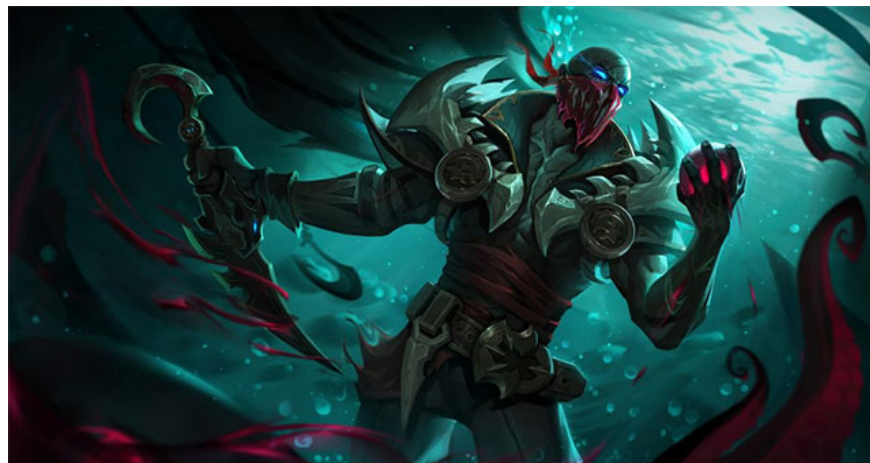

Aatrox

If you go with the Aatrox Wizard team with Yuumi and the Witch Hat, then the Gloves of Thief will be the most suitable equipment for Aatrox. From mana, damage, resistance, what Aatrox wears, it will be equally strong.

In addition, it does not matter if you equip critical damage or evade stats for Aatrox.

Pyke

The current Pyke has been nerfed so badly that no one looks at it. But now, with just one glove, Pyke will return and will not turn into a bully. With this equipment, he would harass the enemy formation, causing the enemy squad to become very confused.

Pyke will take advantage of both the buffalo and the necessary damage and mana. 2-star Pyke will stun the enemy team, no matter what you wear. It is important that he can apply to any formation to be a good control champion without having to stack as well as other Assassins in the DTCL.

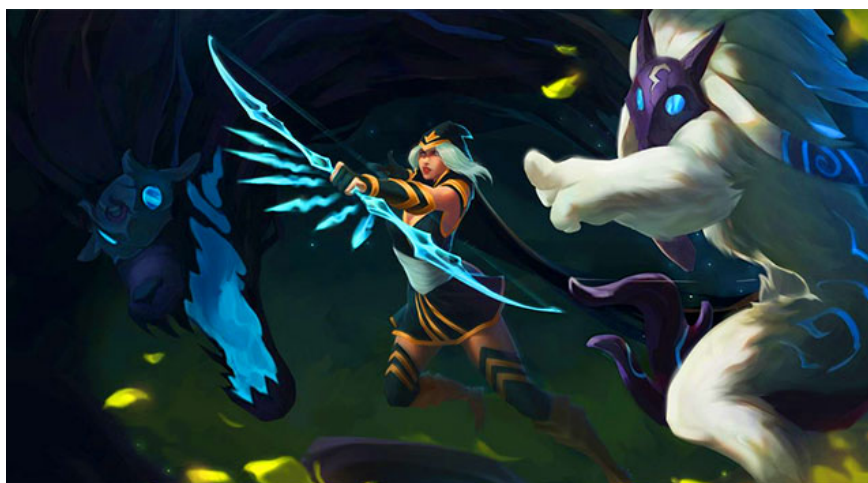

Zed

Similar to Pyke above, Zed has become a killer - Ninja quite strong when receiving comprehensive buffs on damage. If equipped, he will increase the ability to knock down the dame in the back of the enemy team.

Zed is not an ideal champion to accompany you to the end of the game. You should give Zed the Thief Gloves that will help you graft equipment from the beginning, carrying until the middle of the game, then at the end of the game, switch to another champion of your choice.

Kindred / Ashe

For Archers, players will stack Ashe with fixed equipment such as Infinity Sword, Rage / Bow, and Shojin. However, if you do not have many equipment, then wear this glove for Ashe to have more random equipment and more dodging / critical damage is also quite stable.

And if Ashe already has equipment, Kindred will also need to be equipped with equipment when Kindred is normally quite important in the team but has no equipment at all. With luck, Kindred will have mana and will become much stronger.

The 3 star generals do not have equipment

With the nature of the Gloves of Thief, you can use it for any champion and because the equipment is added as a random item, it will depend on the luck of the player. The higher the player's level, the stronger the random equipment will be, and the stronger the bonus stat for the 3-star champions available in the team.

Some names 1 gold often used as a tanker like Garen, Darius, Warwick, Camille to get 3 stars is not difficult but not equipped at all. These will be the names for you to wear the Thief Gloves.

The advantage of the Gloves of Thief is that you do not need to dress much for the wearer and can equip the remaining items for other champions. But the downside of this item is that you cannot control whether the extra random equipment for that champion is suitable for the champion, so remember the appropriate names above to equip them with Gloves of Thief. okay.
