

Chance to get 1TB for free on Drive from Google Maps

Recently, the Local Guides program of Google Maps has added new rewards. Accordingly, those who regularly share photos, inform the famous tourist destinations will have the opportunity to receive 1TB of free storage on Drive and the opportunity to experience the latest products and applications of the company. managing company Google.

Recently, the Local Guides program of Google Maps has added new rewards. Accordingly, those who regularly share photos, inform the famous tourist destinations will have the opportunity to receive 1TB of free storage on Drive and the opportunity to experience the latest products and applications of the company. managing company Google.

1. Download Google Maps for iOS
2. Download Google Maps for Android

However, in order to win this award, Google Maps users also need to contribute a lot to Google. People who reach level 2 in Local Guides only have the opportunity to test Google applications and features early.

Meanwhile, when reaching level 3, users will have an additional badge next to their name, confirming the information that the user provides is reliable.

But to reach level 4, the new user gets the biggest reward, which is 1TB of free storage on the Drive, which you normally pay 9.99 USD / month.

And when you reach level 5 with more than 500 points accumulated, you will have the opportunity to attend the first Local Guides conference held by Google in 2016. Details of this special conference have not been revealed, however, Google promises to have a lot of useful information about Google Maps and be explored inside the Google campus.

Local Guides program has been launched by Google in the early update of the year, it helps users to post information and images of the restaurants and tourist destinations they have ever visited to Google Maps. That is why other users can consult, even preview the food at a certain restaurant.

To be able to participate in the Local Guides program, you can register here . You will then be redirected to the Google Maps application, where you can select locations near your area like a diner, restaurant or hotel. Then contribute by adding realistic photos or writing reviews, editing or adding new locations.

And to be able to become a level 4 member in Local Guides, you will have to be very active in contributing information to Google Maps. But the 1TB of free storage on Google Drive is also very attractive.

1. Allow others to upload data to your Google Drive
2. The tips should know with PDF files on Google Drive
3. Google Drive adds 6 new features

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Chance to get 1TB for free on Drive from Google Maps" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.