

Change language on CCleaner

However, if you are using the English version, it is difficult to experience all the interesting features that this software offers. and you want to switch to your native language to use it more conveniently or vice versa, you want to improve your English so you want to change the language for the software on your computer, including CCleaner into the most popular language. this planet. Please refer to the implementation of TipsMake.com offline.

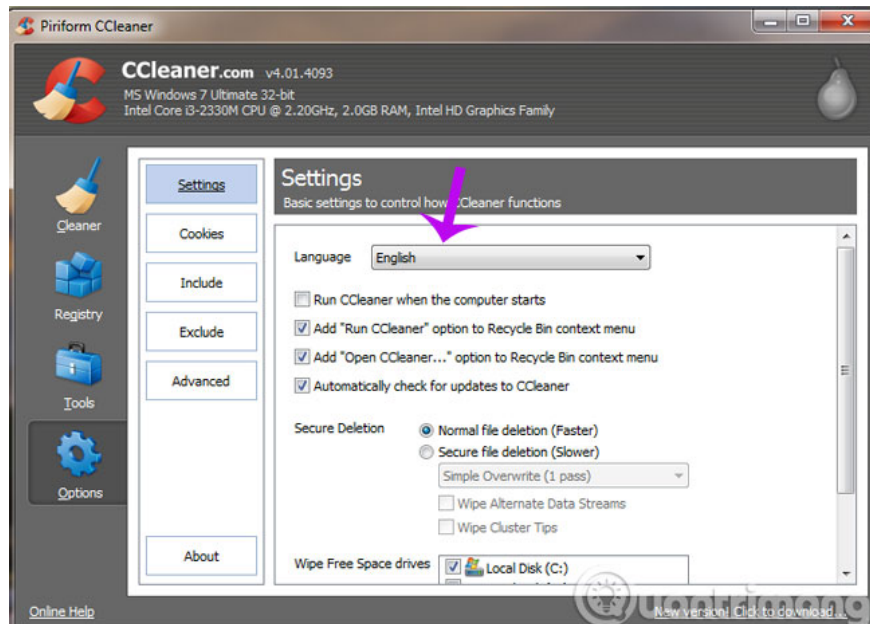

CCleaner is one of the best system cleaning tools on the market today, eliminating unused files from the system, freeing up disk space, and returning computer performance. .

However, if you are using the English version, it is difficult to experience all the interesting features this software offers. and you want to switch to your native language to use it more conveniently or vice versa, you want to improve your English so you want to change the language for the software on your computer, including CCleaner into the most popular language. this planet. Please refer to the implementation of TipsMake.com offline.

Step 1 : Open CCleaner and click Options > Settings (in this case we are using Vietnamese version and want to change to English version) or Options > Settings

Step 2 : In the Language / Language section , change to English / Vietnamese

So you know how to change language on CCleaner so that it is suitable for the purpose of use.

1. How to delete repeat file to save computer memory by CCleaner
2. Clean up the system with PrivaZer
3. How to add a startup program with the system?

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Change language on CCleaner" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.