

Check out some noticeable changes in Office Insider Build for Windows 10 released by Microsoft

Microsoft has just launched a new Office Build for members who have signed up for Office Insider for Windows program with some interesting changes and new features.

Microsoft has just launched a new Office Build for members who have signed up for Office Insider for Windows program with some interesting changes and new features.

Accordingly, this new Build 11807.20000 build will bring a new feature and common bug fixes, as well as improve general performance, specifically as follows.

1. Microsoft released Sysmon 10 with DNS query logging feature

New feature

Additional features for precise deletion in Word: This feature is actually available in PowerPoint, but only recently updated for Word. With this new deletion feature, you can easily remove the ink, tiny characters easily in the text.

1. Apple's new iCloud Windows 10 application is now available in MS Store

Fixes

Notable fixes:

For Word:

1. Microsoft has fixed a problem that may prevent users from logging in after saving a Word document to OneDrive
2. Microsoft fixed the problem in which users could not change SharePoint properties while working in restricted access mode.
3. Microsoft has successfully fixed the problem in which top and bottom content can be changed when aligning the margin.
4. Microsoft has fixed the problem that may prevent users from using custom fields when opened from SharePoint

For Excel:

1. Microsoft has fixed the problem presented when users delete rows that have been applied to the filter.
2. The problem can sometimes cause the mouse to blink in the protected view mode that has been successfully overcome.
3. Microsoft has fixed the problem that may cause an error when you delete a series of consecutive ranges.
4. Microsoft fixed the problem in which some users will have the option to add version history when not available.
5. The problem can cause problems when using the Spreadsheet Compare tool has been fixed.

For PowerPoint:

1. Microsoft has fixed the problem that may cause an error when users click on a link to SharePoint.
2. The problem may cause the user to suddenly be moved to the next page while typing with the Surface Pen has been fixed.

For Outlook:

1. Microsoft has fixed the problem in some cases, the To field is larger than usual

For Access:

1. Issues related to performance and stability have been overcome.

Project

1. Issues related to performance and stability have been overcome.

To update to the latest Preview Build build of Office Insider, open any Office program on your computer and navigate to: File> Account> Update Options> Update Now.

1. Microsoft warned about malicious spam campaigns using vulnerabilities in Office and Wordpad

You finished reading the article "Check out some noticeable changes in Office Insider Build for Windows 10 released by Microsoft" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

