

Chongqing vertical city of China - a tourist goes no return

To Chongqing, one thing is for sure, whether you use a Google Maps or a tour guide map, it doesn't help you, and you don't know where you are standing in the floor. of this 'multi-level' planned city.

1. Top 10 "exotic" and "unique" water bridges in the world
2. The picture of the strange and controversial bridge over the past, the waste of idiots or constructive calculation
3. The 10 brainwashing junctions in the world make you confused

' Which countries I should not visit ' is a very interesting question posted on a service website called Quora (Quora is a question and answer service (Q&A) website created here. set of questions and answers to topics that arise in daily life or work Users can collaborate by editing questions and suggesting other users' answers to edit. To confirm that my question is really necessary, this person also wrote: ' No trolls, I really asked . '

Immediately this article has been crowded with Quora users interested and comment extremely lively. There are many people who offer extremely terrible places on countries that are not suitable for you to visit even once.

Among those comments, Chongqing - China probably makes up the majority of people agreeing that this place should absolutely not visit even once. It is this 'warning' from everyone that makes us feel afraid, but also extremely curious about this Chongqing city, right?

Chongqing from afar is not inferior to the appearance of a rising Dubai .

1. 57.7 billion pixels photo taken of a stretched Bentley in a picture in Dubai

'You can take the elevator up to the 10th floor and step out still find yourself standing on a big road . You enter another building and press on the 8th floor, then suddenly see the elevator go down!' - Liu shared - 'A garage located on the 5th or 6th floor is only a common thing in the district.'

However, if you really want to explore this land, then be prepared to wind up beforehand because here you will get lost in Chongqing 'maze' to the point of not finding the way to the hotel. If you really want to explore this land, please take a look at the pictures below before making a decision whether to travel here or not.

To Chongqing, one thing is for sure, whether you use a Google Maps or a tour guide map, it doesn't help you, and you don't know where you are standing in the floor. of this 'multi-level' planned city.

The image of the Japanese animated film 'Soul Land away' (Spirited away) is actually real in Chongqing .

There are also scenes of the animated film "Soul Land" .

And this is the real scene in Chongqing .

The transportation system here is no different from the high-speed roller coaster lines in amusement parks .

The inclined sections are quite large and the angle of turn you can only imagine in the movie, this is enough to build the hair for those who are weak .

And the famous specialty is unique in Chongqing: The elevated railway runs through tall buildings!

Residents of these buildings can 'comfortably' press the elevator up to their own floor as soon as they land on the train station .

If you're a quiet person who doesn't tolerate noise, Chongqing is not the ideal place for you. Because there are so many vehicles and ships here, it is imperative to adapt to the habit of making the train soar all over the head all day .

Railways, national highways are overlapping like spider webs, if you are not indigenous people, you will surely be numb because you don't know which floor to go to .

Does Google Maps help me?

Going over the bridge to the river and going on the wrong lane, perhaps you should sleep over the river
As soon as you walk on a square, you might think you're standing on the ground floor . until you find out there are still a dozen floors below .

These areas are very popular in Chongqing
Some other pictures of Chongqing:

People at a Chongqing swimming pool

New old apartment buildings sprout up

And the cable car right in the city center

Message the last word that we want to tell you: 'Don't come to Chongqing if you still want to find your way back to my mother .'

Have a happy time!

You finished reading the article "Chongqing vertical city of China - a tourist goes no return" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.