

Choose what age to land at the beginning of the year when Dinh Dau gave the family lots of luck

On the first day of the new year, Vietnamese families often choose good people, homeowners to storm the land (home) with the wish that everything will be smooth, smooth and peaceful ... So in the new year of Rooster Dinh, age Which would be suitable to land?

The new year is coming, every Vietnamese family is very focused on the direction of departure as well as those who land for the family but who are happy, easygoing, good to come home first, all year in the house everything will please. In 2017, some ages such as Nham Thin, Mau Thin, Ky Suu will be the ones that bring luck to the family, suitable to go to the land for families.

According to the concept of many Eastern cultures, Tet is a traditional custom and on the 1st of the New Year is considered the first day to welcome the atmosphere of the whole new year. If all goes well on the first day, the whole year will be convenient.

That is why everyone wishes that all good things will come to his family and be very careful with his speech, how to walk and behave in the first day of the new year. The custom of rushing to the ground and storming the house at the beginning of the year (where there is a place called earthbending) is also meaningful. The time of the earthquake starts after the New Year's Eve, that is when the old year passes, the new year comes. Many families often let a person in the house rush to take the land, and many families chose a good person to land for their home.

However, according to the feng shui point of view, choose the age of groundbreaking to carefully consider the dignity, morality, wealth, health as well as personality or limitations, . of the person who broke the house. In general, it must be a "good" person, good.
