

Contemplate inside the $ 250 million mansion of the super rich world in America

Recently, a new mansion has just been built in the Bel Air area in Los Angeles and has an extremely shocking price of up to 250 million USD. Let's admire the close-up inside the mansion of super-rich America!

Recently, a " mansion " has just been built in the Bel Air area in Los Angeles and has an extremely shocking price of up to $ 250 million . According to a website, this is considered the most expensive mansion in the United States ever. One thing is for sure, this villa is not the same as other villas on the market today. It is built in a modern style with the shape of solid geometric blocks with large glass windows.

Of course, this super mansion does not follow the civilian Restoration Hardware standard, owning all the expensive interior decorations. It is decorated for people with special interests - such as decorating a room with a real helicopter , or a giant Leica camera model, or simply a living room area. decorated with velvet strings. Besides, there are other luxurious design accessories from the famous Hermès brand.

To talk a bit more about the living space of this villa. Inside the villa, there are mainly two VIP suites including 10 guest-sized rooms, 21 bathrooms, three separate rooms equipped with the perfect kitchen and no less than 5 bars.

The mansion was built by senior developer Bruce Makowsky - the master behind, dominating the $ 70 million homes in Beverly Hills and sold by Markus "Notch" Persson in 2014.

" This villa is sold to the richest billionaires in the world - who wants to own the best things that exist in life. Until now, the ultra-luxury market is the space of the throne. home, even suitable for super yachts and private aircraft that billionaires have to spend millions of dollars every year, "Makowsky said in a published list statement.

The area of ??the villa is about 38,000m² , the floor area is 17,000m² . The basement is extremely valuable parking because its collection is up to 30 million USD. All of these boxes are for sale.

The villa is located on a hill so it is possible to see the whole of Los Angeles with 270 degree vision is one of its most prominent features.

Certainly inside this mansion there are many more wonderful things, the decoration is not defined as luxurious as we often think.

The interior of the mansion is extremely comfortable and very artfully decorated like a helicopter that has been deactivated since the 1980s in the Airwolf TV show.

Although this helicopter is no longer operating, it still looks shiny, new and extremely luxurious. This is a great location suitable for watching the sunset fall down the hill.

There are more than 100 unique artworks inside this million-dollar mansion.

This is the legendary pinball game but designed exclusively for champagne places.

The sculpture of a giant Leica camera worth $ 1 million.

. and chrome-plated guns.

Arrangements are not random but interesting.

The living room area is like a VIP club separated by extremely luxurious velvet strings.

Oversized television screens are installed in many rooms, even when standing outside can still watch TV inside.

Although not comparable to other giant screens, this movie theater can accommodate 40 people. The wall behind is decorated with a painting in that 007 spy movie.

If you don't like watching movies, you can switch to bowling as well.

This cellar is fine, don't know how many bottles are in here?

This entertainment room is suitable for all ages, especially that candy wall.

Spa room for relaxation.

Gym room.

The underground water system in the mansion is also a remarkable point.

The pillows come from the Hermès brand.

The top pool is glazed with glass, there is nothing more wonderful, too suitable for the party.

Lighting system for the whole house at night.

Refer to some more articles:

1. 22 magnificent pictures of the wonderful world around us
2. Let's admire inside the world's most luxurious aircraft
3. 30 beautiful natural scenes that make you come to Norway once in your life

Having fun!

You finished reading the article "Contemplate inside the $ 250 million mansion of the super rich world in America" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.