

Create effects for text in PowerPoint

Introduce how to create text effects in PowerPoint. To create effects for text, do the following: Step 1: Select the content to create effects - go to the Format tab - Quick Styles - quickly select the type of effects for text.

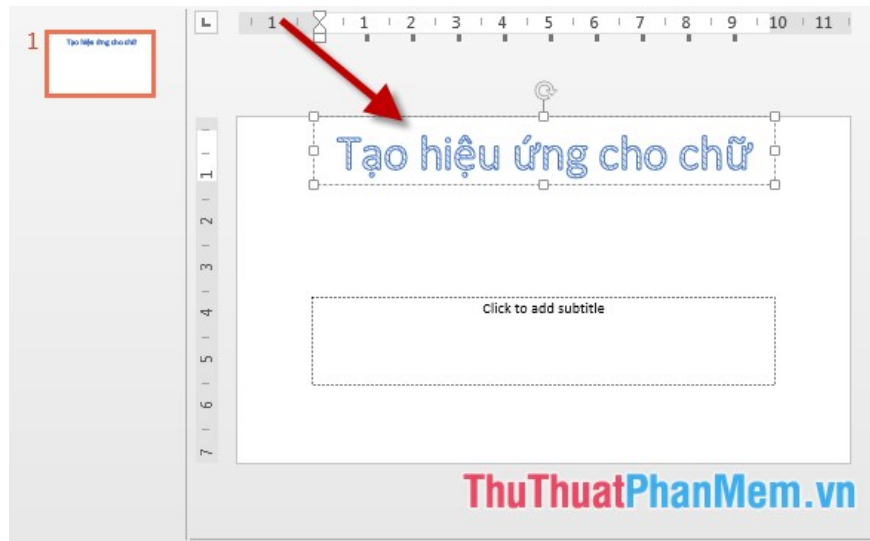

The following article introduces you to how to create text effects in PowerPoint.

To effect the text, do the following:

Step 1: Select the content to create effects -> on the Format tab -> Quick Styles -> quickly select the effect style for text:

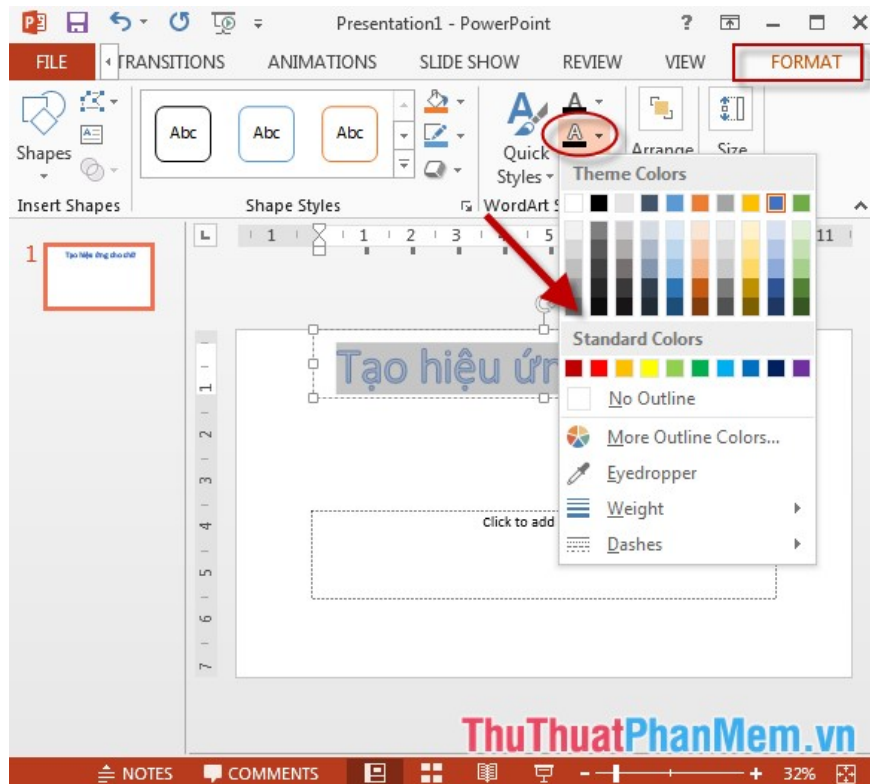

- The result has quickly created type effects for text:

Step 2: Go to the Format tab -> click the Text Fill icon -> select the fill color for the text (in case you want to choose other colors click More Fill Color)

Step 3: Click the Text Outline icon to select the border color:

Step 4: Click the Text Effects icon to select the effect for the text, for example, select the shadow effect for the text -> click the Shadow icon -> select the effect to create:

Step 5: Or you can choose many other effects:

- Results after creating text effects:

Above is a detailed guide on how to create effects for text in PowerPoint.

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Create effects for text in PowerPoint" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.