

Create slides from a template available in PowerPoint

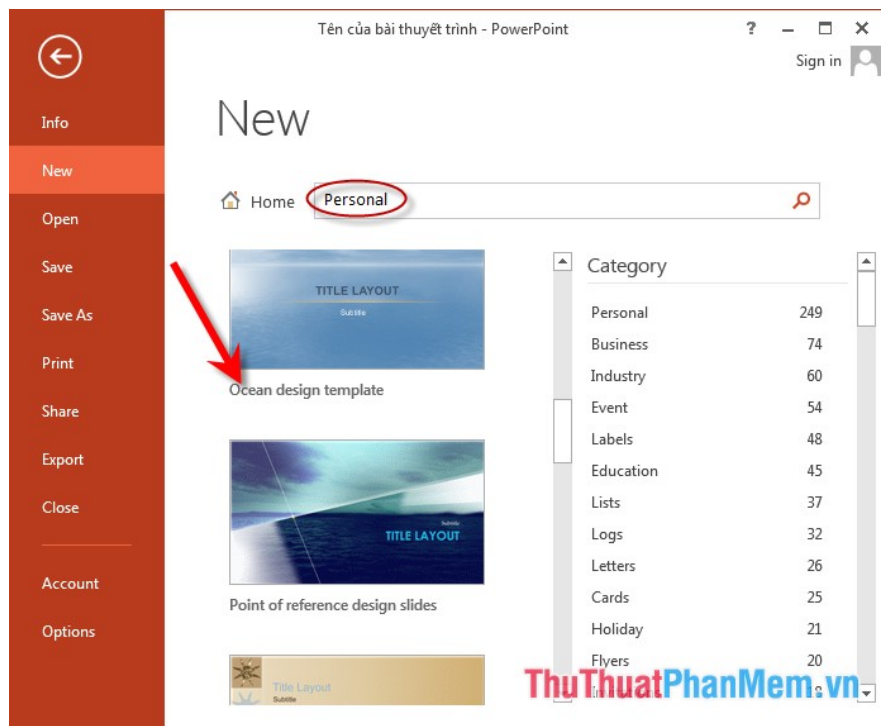

The following article introduces you in detail how to create a presentation from a template available in PowerPoint. Step 1: Open PowerPoint - go to File - New - select the template available in groups

The following article introduces you in detail how to create a presentation from a template available in PowerPoint.

Step 1: Open PowerPoint -> go to File -> New -> select templates available in the group:

- For example, in the Personal group, the samples are as follows:

- Examples of patterns in the Persontations group :

Step 2: Click on the template you want to apply -> click Create to create a slide show:

Step 3: Edit the content in each Slide to suit your requirements:

Step 4: After editing is complete, save the file -> on the File tab -> Save As -> proceed to name the newly created file:

The above is a detailed guide on how to create a presentation from a template available in PowerPoint.

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Create slides from a template available in PowerPoint" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.