

Create slides from an existing slide in PowerPoint

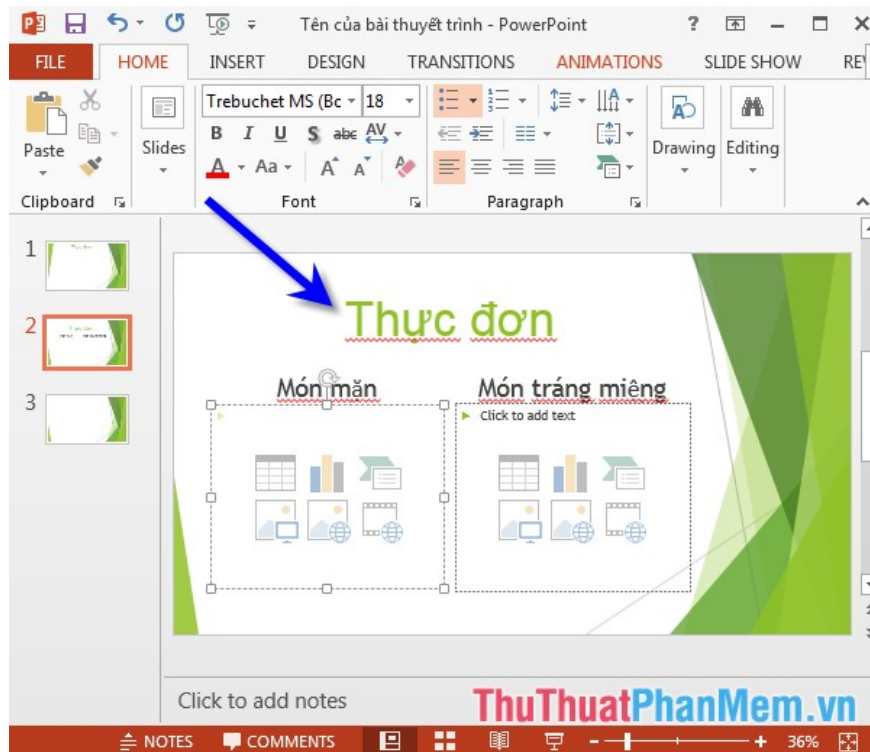

The following article introduces you in detail. Create slides from an existing slide in PowerPoint. Step 1: Open PowerPoint - go to File - Open - select the PowerPoint file to apply:

The following article introduces you in detail. Create slides from an existing slide in PowerPoint.

Step 1: Open PowerPoint -> go to File -> Open -> select the PowerPoint file to apply:

Step 2: The file to be applied is displayed -> proceed to edit the content of the Slide:

Step 3: After editing the content, the results are:

Step 4: Proceed to save the edited file by clicking File -> Save As:

Step 5: The Save As dialog box appears -> choose a location to save the file and rename the file -> Save:

So with a few simple steps, you can create a presentation from an existing one without spending a lot of time.

Good luck!

You finished reading the article "Create slides from an existing slide in PowerPoint" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.

