The Legend of Dark River is definitely a martial arts film that martial arts fans should not miss. Notably, The Legend of Dark River features the most beautiful ancient beauty in China - Peng Xiaoran.

Main content of the movie Am Ha Truyen

Adapted from the novel of the same name by Zhou Mu Nan, The Story of Dark River tells the story of the patriarch of Dark River, the top assassin organization in the underworld, who is facing imminent danger. Those who want to overthrow him launch a fierce assassination, thus starting a race for survival and the future of the organization. Su Mu Yu, the leader of the Zhou Ying Group, is forced into the conflict, drawing his sword against his best friend over a difference of opinion.

Highlights of Am Ha Truyen

Sequel to Young Singer and Young White Horse, Drunk in Spring Wind

Novelist Zhou Mu Nan's works, including Young White Horse Drunk in Spring Wind (by Hou Ming Hao and He Yu, and Young Singer's Journey by Li Hong Yi, Ao Rui Peng, and Liu Xue Yi, have all been adapted into films. The Story of Dark River inherits the worldview of youth in the two works, while also depicting the background of the struggle for power in Young Singer's Journey. In order to better express the structure of the script, the film also invited the production team and the original author to participate in writing the script, continuing to depict the emotional struggles and pursuit of ideals of youth.

"Molded" by famous director

The biggest concern about adapting novels into TV series is that each film crew is different. This time, screenwriter Zhou Mu Nan and director Yin Tao have experience working together since Young Singer, and this director has directed the hit TV series Chang Feng Du and Fairy Terrace. The scenes depicting the growth of the male and female leads all touched the hearts of the audience. This combination is a guarantee for the quality of the film. Just by watching the trailer, you can feel the charm of each character.

Great performance by Cung Tuan

In The Legend of Dark River, Gong Jun plays Su Mu Yu, the former young master of the Wushuang Cheng clan, Zhuo Yue'an. After his clan collapsed, he became a famous assassin from Heijiang, known by the nickname Wu Mo (or "Ghost Slayer"). Even among the ranks of assassins, he remained steadfast in not killing innocent people.

Gong Jun not only excellently portrayed the image of a righteous assassin, but also personally performed dangerous fighting scenes. His seductive deep voice received a "shower" of compliments from netizens. On the other hand, Gong Jun's swordsmanship and umbrella skills were truly skillful and pleasing to the eye, making it hard to find any fault.

The surprising and profound brotherly story of Mo Vu and Xuong Hoa

In Dark River, Chang Hua Shen plays Su Changhe, Su Muwu's best friend and the so-called Burner. Both are from the Su family of Heijiang, but disagreements arose due to the change in ownership of Heijiang. Initially comrades who could fight side by side, they ended up on opposite sides of the power ladder. Su Changhe's death at the hands of Su Muwu's sword is a tragic yet profound story that forged the chivalrous spirit of the two young men. Their rivalry has been likened to a modern version of "The Storm".

Peng Xiaoran - The most beautiful young lady of the assassin organization

Ancient beauty Peng Xiaoran is back! She plays Mu Yumo, the eldest daughter of the Mu family in The Legend of Dark River. She is known as the Spider God for her mastery of the Heavenly Spider Formation. Her appearance includes a beautiful rabbit mask, reminiscent of her childhood life as the Rabbit of the Spider Shadow Palace. She is a pioneer in mechanized warfare and intelligence breaches, protecting the head of the Dark River family who is in danger. Besides her outstanding fighting ability, she is also known for her alluring beauty, earning her the title of the most beautiful woman in Dark River.
