

Decode classic magic tricks in the world

After reading this lesson, you will realize that just turning out magic is just that simple.

Amazing magic tricks always attract attention not only for children but also for adults. Although we all know there are no mysterious magic in them, it is impossible to explain why magicians can do that.

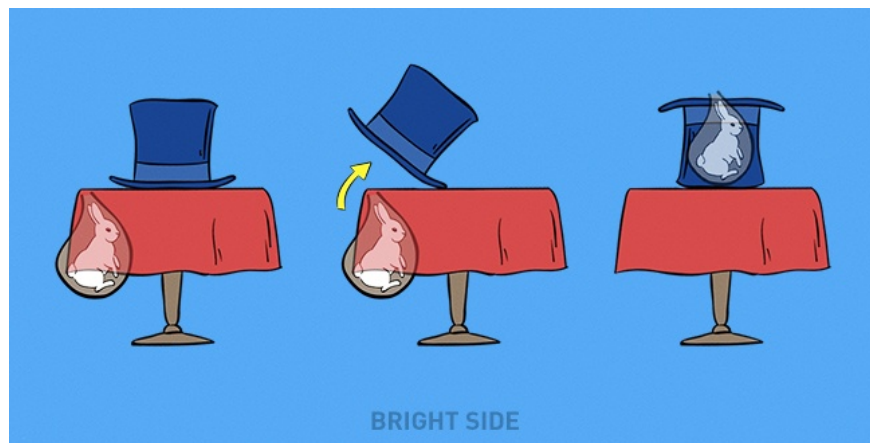

Here are the secrets behind the classic magic tricks in the world that one of us must also be amazed and admired. After reading this lesson, you will realize that just turning out magic is just that simple.

1. Remove the rabbit from the hat

Tool

1. A rabbit
2. A table covered with towels
3. A magic hat
4. A black square towel (coincides with the color of the magic hat)

Perform

The magician tied the 4 corners of the towel to form a bag and put the rabbit inside.

Hang this bag into a hook on the side of the table toward the magician (the bag is covered by a tablecloth that makes the audience unable to see).

Of course, before the "magic" they will show the audience that the hat is completely empty and put the hat face down on the table.

When performing, the magician distracts the audience with "authors" and quickly slips the bag into the hat. In the end, they just need to pretend to allow the rabbit to appear inside the hat and of course when the cap is removed, the audience will see the rabbit.

2. Create white smoke from your fingers

Tool

1. A porcelain plate
2. A matchbox

Perform

First the magician puts the porcelain plate in the refrigerator for about 30 minutes. Then, they cut a face from the matchbox and removed the ignition paper. Fold this strip into two and burn it on a cold plate. When the ignition paper burns out, leave a brown layer.

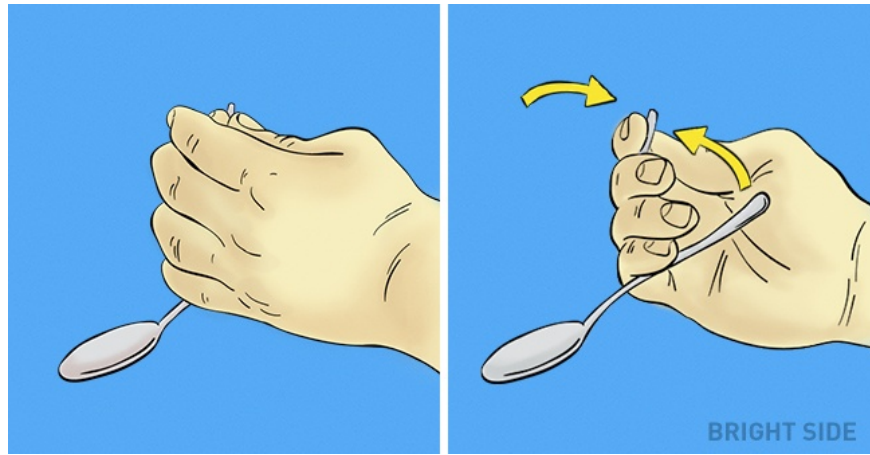

When performing the performance the magician will apply this substance to the fingertip. They just need to rub their fingers together, the white smoke will slowly rise in the audience's astonishment and astonishment.

3. Metal spoon bend

Tool

1. A metal spoon
2. A small silver coin

Perform

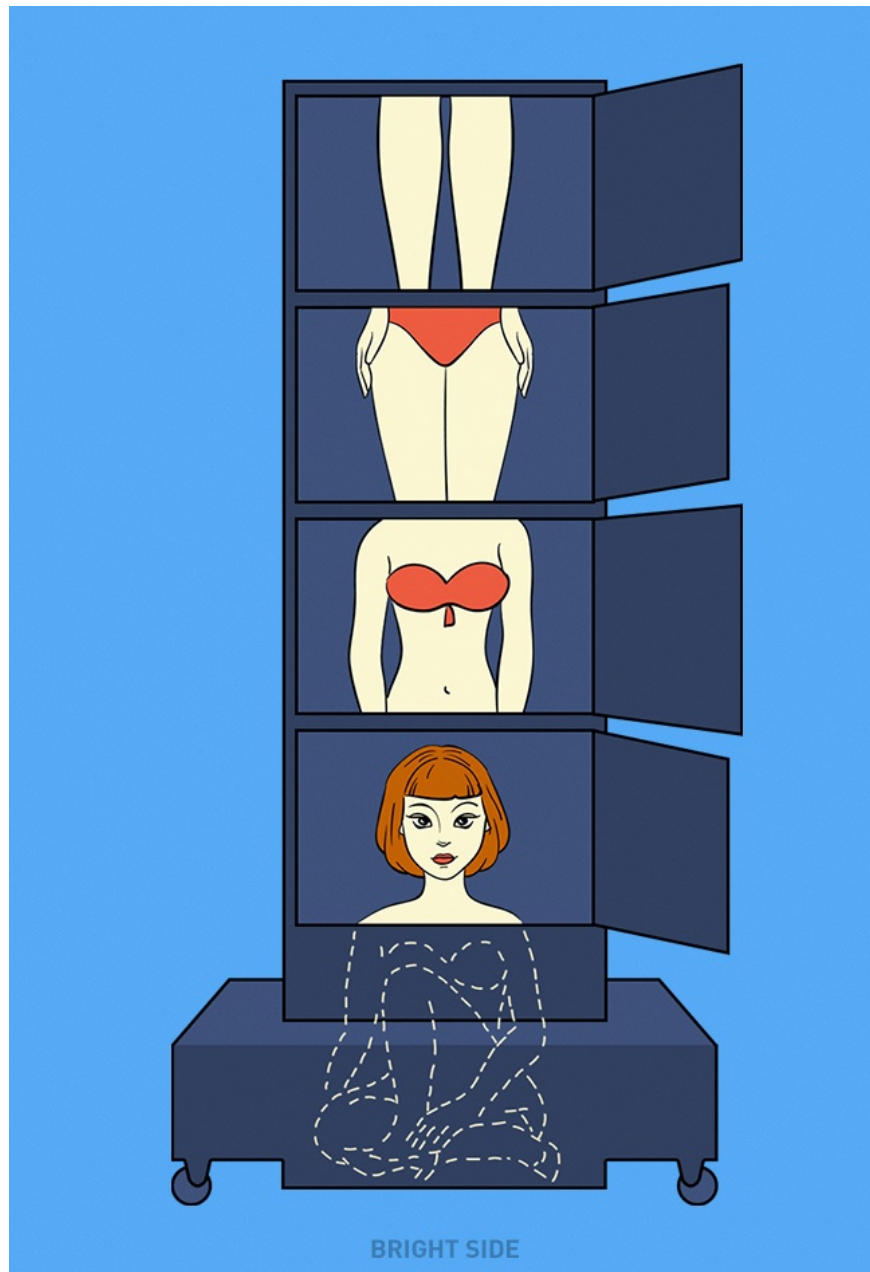

Before doing so, the magician hides a small metal coin in the palm near the thumb.

While performing, they move the coin so that only one corner appears to look like the top of the spoon to deceive the audience.

Next, they pressed the spoon firmly on the table and pretended to try to bend it while slowly tilting the handle of the spoon handle down inside the hand. Then the hand held the coin back out so that the audience mistakenly thought that they had bent the spoon.

4. Cut people and swap body parts

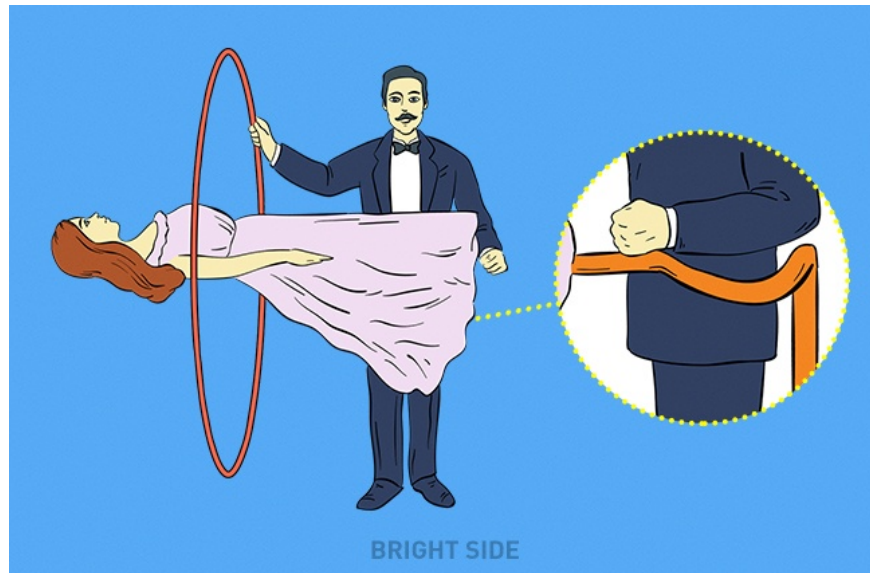

The magician will prepare about 4 35cm tall boxes and a mobile base 20cm high.

The boxes above will have two layers of doors - real and fake doors. When placed on top of each other, they will create a door large enough for the assistant to enter. The assistant woman entered the four boxes, and stood on a hatch and the door opened to an empty space inside the mobile base.

When the four doors closed, the girl quickly sat down through the hatch, crossed her legs inside the sole just sticking her head up. At the same time, the fake doors will open, inside are fake body parts corresponding to the body parts of the girl, dressed properly with the clothes the assistant is wearing.

When the performance begins, the magician will unload the boxes and swap their positions with each other. When the doors of the boxes were opened, the audience only saw the swapped "parts of the girl".

5. Make people fly in the air

The secret of this classic magic is the rack controller that raises the person to an S shape, attached to a transparent glass plate connected to the stage.

The assistant of the magician is usually a girl wearing a long skirt that will lie on the table so that the skirt hangs down and is covered with a large towel to hide the space directly below the table.

When magicians are allowed to cast magic, the lifting rack will be activated thanks to the floor control system. To increase the mysterious part the girl will pretend to be hypnotized.
