Prices from $ 1,999 to $ 2,699 and a 1.2 GHz speed chip make Dell computers lose points in the eyes of users, but the appeal of Adamo is not inferior to MacBook Air.

Prices from $ 1,999 to $ 2,699 and a 1.2 GHz speed chip make Dell computers lose points in the eyes of users, but the appeal of Adamo is not inferior to MacBook Air .

The MacBook Air is soft and the Dell Adamo is angular, so the beauty of these two laptops will depend on each person's point of view.

Adamo means "to fall in love".

Version 1999 USD uses 1.2 GHz SU9300 chip, 2 GB RAM.

Version 2,699 USD integrated chip SU9400 1.4 GHz, 4 GB RAM, USB DVD burner.

Although the speed is not high, the SU processor consumes up to 10 watts while MacBook Air up to 17 watts.

Both Adamo versions are equipped with 128 GB SSD drives, 3G modems and SIM card sockets.

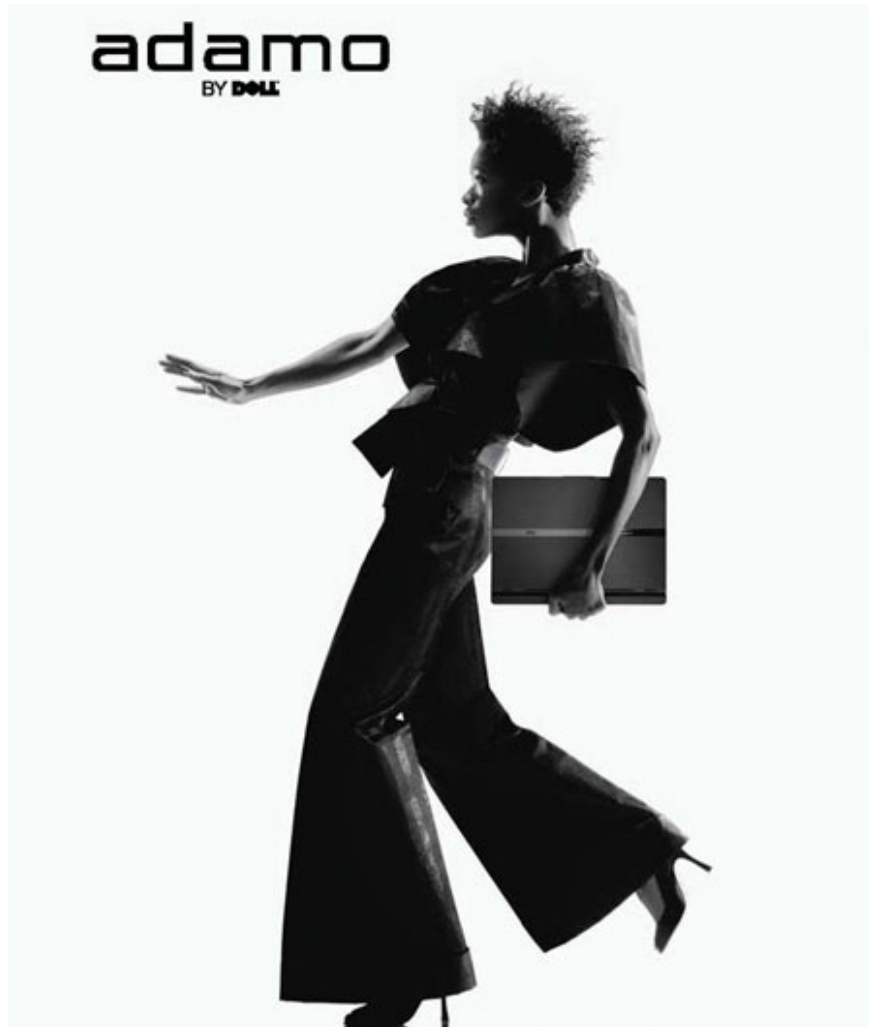

13.4-inch screen, 6-cell battery (5 hours).

Bluetooth 2.1, Wi-Fi 802.11n, GPS navigation technology.

2 USB 2.0 ports, one USB / eSATA port, Gigabit Ethernet and DisplayPort.

However, the Adamo weighs 1.8 kg.
