Comparing LMHT Mobile and Liên Quân Mobile

General LMHT Mobile has up to 4 skills

If in League of Mobile, the champion will only have 3 skills and 1 internal, in League of Mobile, the generals will retain the same 4 skills as on the PC League version. This will require players to have more skills than the Mobile Union.

See characters in 3D in LOL speed battle

Characters in LOL Speed ??War will be more beautiful and viewable in 3D with the skins of that champion. Especially for female generals, when players have only ever been able to see through inanimate images, with 3D images will make the League of Legends generals become more beautiful and vivid.

Level 15 is the largest in League of Legends

The level of champions reduced from 30 to 15 compared to the PC version of LoL will also reduce the time of the LoL game to half. And Summoners Rift map area will be scaled down compared to the map of LoL PC.

Players are forced to Last Hit soldiers in LoL

In Lien Lien Mobile, the last hit is not so important when you have the last hit, you will still receive gold and experience. As for LOL Mobile still requires gamers to last hit standard soldiers, if it is completed, gamers will have full gold, but if they fail, there will still be a consolation amount.

Turret shield has only 3 layers left in LOL Toc Chien

This is understandable when with mobile platforms and consoles, the speed of matches will be pushed up faster and ended sooner. Therefore, reducing the shield class is not difficult to understand.

The elemental dragon system remained the same

Through the game trailer of League of Legends, gamers can see that the elemental dragon system of League of Legends has not changed compared to the PC version. With the appearance of the elemental symbol Dragon Flame LMHT Mobile, there will certainly be other elemental symbols such as Water, Wind and Earth.

Some champion skills have been changed

The change here is not that the generals will be replaced with new skills, only that Riot Games will change the way to use the technique to match the gameplay of Mobile LoL. For example, Ashe's Iceborn can control the direction of the flight or Vayne's Silver Arrow will become the trigger.

Plug eye LMHT Mobile

Eye-siting is common only on PC games, where vision-controlled eye-gouging is considered art, even enough to evaluate Support players. The appearance of an eye plugin feature on League of Legends will help gamers feel very excited.

You must go back to buy items in LOL Mobile

This is a bit inconvenient for Lien Quan Mobile as gamers can completely buy and pair equipment as soon as they have the necessary money, no matter where on the map. Players only need to choose a champion with good recovery and sometimes need not to go home at all times during the match. But in LoL, it is imperative that gamers have to go home if they want to dress up.

The League of Legends The League of Legends is simplified

The Recombinant Gem in Mobile League is simpler than PC League, even players can blend the main pearl branches with different pearls.

Summoner's Rift maps in League of Legends will have healing points

There will be additional green healing points next to the turrets so that players can stay in the lane better and have more resources. At the same time, players will also be able to apply a one-dimensional perspective, whether coming from any team on the map. This will help gamers experience their match easier.

Monsters in League of Mobile

Baron and Rift Herald will appear in League of Legends like the PC version. The Dragon and Rift Herald will appear in the 4th minute while Baron will appear in the 10th minute. And there will be bosses for soldiers and allies like PC.

Additional magic Lol Mobile

With League of Legends Express, gamers will still retain the right to choose additional spells like on League of Legends PC such as Speed, Teleport, Shield, or Burn. As for Lien Quan Mobile, each general can only choose 1 additional spell such as Speed, Break . and have another healing.

Can activate items in LOL Mobile

In the Federation of Mobile, most items have a passive effect, meaning the player cannot actively activate the effect of the item. But in LoL Mobile is different, the player can actively activate the effect of the item besides the skills of the champion, and of course the number of active active equipment will be greater than the Mobile Alliance.

Those are all the differences between LoL and League of Legends, if you know what else is in them
