If you have heard a 'glimpse' of the Perfect World VNG mobile game, it probably implies that these are three denominations, right? V? Mang, V? Linh, and the rest must be Võ Hi?p.

In Perfect World VNG, the Vu clan is divided into two systems: Mang Mang (male) and Vu Linh (female) with characteristic wings, with many advantages in long-range combat. Each blow of V? Mang can deal massive physical damage in a short time. However, low HP may be a disadvantage of Vu Mang in the squad, if not 'protected' by a true tanker.

V? Mang

Speaking of V? Mang, people will surely think that this is a good candidate in PK matches or participating in the copy and boss activities. This sect is extremely versatile in moving as well as capturing the battle, chasing and destroying enemies. Vu Mang has a knack for supporting magic and large-scale magic, which is an indispensable factor in every activity.

Vu Mang's career is: Damage, Flexibility. This faction specializes in using the Bow as a weapon.

Advantages:

1. A great tanker and good boss 'boss dame'. The main position to hunt boss or sub-version is difficult to escape from Vu Mang.

2. Possessing extremely high rate of fire accompanied by extremely strong force, is an indispensable gunner in the team.

Defect:

1. Poor health, easily taking the lead if the buff in the team doesn't follow.
2. This sect is quite difficult to play for those who are first practicing.

V? Linh

The same clan, but while Vu Mang possesses strong long-range damage, Vu Linh is the only system capable of treating and supporting teammates. Unlike Vu Mang, Vu Linh possesses skills that deal magic damage, can buff and clear bad status for allies, as well as reduce the strength of opponents when participating in battles.

Vu Linh's career: support, long range. The dedicated weapon is Bao Luan.

In the team if there is Vu Linh, surely all will be quite strong support. Not merely a healing buff, Vu Linh can also buff effects. Perhaps few people choose this school to go towards PK fighting, but probably will make use of to be a full-fledged 'super buff'.

Vu Linh can help the whole team recover a huge amount of blood with population skills. Boss or PK battle without Vu Linh will surely make the team struggle here. It is expected that this sect will be interested by many people when the game launches. At the same time, Vu Linh also has the skills of population, consumes legs and legs to create a battlefield and all teammates in the battlefield receive damage buffs very convenient.

1. Pros: comprehensive buff, teams with Vu Linh are not worried about blood and other useful effects.
2. Disadvantages: fighting is quite weak because the damage is not much.

Wuxia

Martial Martial Arts belonging to the Human Race, is a faction capable of causing enormous physical damage. At the same time, Vo Hiep can create side effects for opponents such as stun, reducing percentage of life force. The difference with Vu Mang is that Vo Hiep is a strong melee fighter with a balance in attack and defense, Vu Mang is a long-range fighter.

Occupation of Vo Hiep: Damage, Control. Special weapon is Ax (Spear / Song Phu).

Although using the Ax as the main weapon, Vo Hiep is also capable of converting weapons to Spear, this is also a different feature of Vo Hiep and other sects - The only sect that can switch between the 2 type of weapon.
