

Discover these paradise islands in 2017, you'll get $ 300

All tourists who come to these paradise islands in 2017 will receive $ 300 at the hotel they stay. It is fascinating, isn't it? Let's TipsMake.com find out more information offline.

On the occasion of the historic anniversary, an American archipelago offers a plan to pay visitors to and use island services for 3 days. This is a plan to be adopted by the US Virgin Islands government to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the movement of the islands from the territory of Denmark to the US since 1916.

It is hard to believe, but there are some amazingly beautiful places in the Caribbean, especially those who come here early to be paid more. All travelers who decide to stay on any of the islands below for more than three days will receive an equivalent of $ 300 .

Bright Side staff decided to investigate more about this fascinating tourist information. Today, we will share with you all you need to know to receive this generous bonus when traveling here.

To get this attractive offer, visitors need to schedule a trip to the Virgin Islands before October 1, 2017, traveling on the island in 2017, to one of the 3 subordinate islands including St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix, and stay for 3 consecutive nights. For $ 300, visitors can use it to shop or use other island services such as museum visits, water sports, reservations or other facilities. Instead of receiving cash, visitors will have a voucher at the hotel they stay.

This super-attractive proposal lies in the question given to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the anniversary of the Virgin Islands becoming a US territory. In 1917, the United States bought them from Denmark with 25 million dollars of gold coins.

Thanks to the beautiful scenery, temperate climate and high standards of service, the Virgin Islands quickly gained the love of tourists from all over the world. And in this anniversary year, visitors who visit here are comfortable spending their bonuses.

The local authorities here are willing to pay every tourist to any of the three major islands of the Virgin Islands with an attractive amount of $ 300. This offer is valid for anyone booking before October 1, 2017, with the intention of staying on the Virgin Islands for more than three days. Although in fact, most tourists will want to experience such a beautiful place for at least a week!

To be fair, these $ 300 will not be given in cash but special vouchers . Tourists can use them for various activities such as scuba diving, excursions and surfing.

As for those who stayed on the island during the anniversary (which will last throughout March), they also received an equally special gift.

There are 32 hotels on all three islands that have agreed to participate in this activity, not to mention dozens of their partner businesses.

Getting to the Virgin Islands is easy if it comes from the east coast of the United States. A round-trip flight from JFK to Charlotte Amalie Airport on St Thomas Island will cost about $ 710. Flight time is four hours. In addition, there are a range of specialist airlines offering non-stop flights to choose from such as American, United and Delta. Guests can also find cheap JetBlue flights to St. Petersburg, Thomas and St. Croix - where connects with San Juan, Puerto Rico. Upon arrival at the Virgin Islands, guests can travel through the islands by ferry.

The best time to travel to the Virgin Islands is between January and April. However, this campaign will last until December 31, 2017 . Visitors should also note that winter is the peak tourist season in the Caribbean. Therefore, the price will normally cool down after March onwards.
