

Don't just think about money, these are 11 great benefits that Mark Zuckerberg has for Facebook employees

It is well known that in large technology companies often bring benefits to their employees. Facebook is no exception.

It is well known that in large technology companies often bring benefits to their employees. Facebook is no exception.

Looking through the career pages - with reviews on Glassdoor - will show a lot of the types of benefits offered by companies. On his career page, Facebook also offers a "multi-dimensional approach to benefits and benefits", focusing on many areas of employee life such as health, family, community, and finance. and convenience.

See also: Mark Zuckerberg tomorrow morning will come to Vietnam

These are the benefits of Facebook employees in North America. On the Glassdoor page, the benefits that Facebook offers its employees receive 4.7 out of 5 stars. Look to see if you want to earn a leg in this company.

4 months of vacation are still paid for new parents - within the first 1 year after birth or adoption

Caring for family members when having children

Bicycle repair with staff at Menlo Park

If you like cycling, then this is a very welcome benefit

Allowance for gym members and other sports activities

Facebook also focuses on health training for employees

21 paid holidays for full-time employees

Working at Facebook is not reserved for vacations every time you want to travel

Many video games for Menlo Park staff

Spoiled playing games if you work in Menlo Park

$ 4,000 for parents - along with financial aid for egg freezing and adoption costs

This money called 'baby cash' helps support infertile and infertile couples

Free meals all day

Working enthusiastically has immediate results, not hungry at Facebook

Haircut in place in the shop at Menlo Park office

Facebook takes care of it literally

Health care and dentist on site

Taking care of your teeth like this is where you need to go?

Parking service is available at Menlo Park headquarters and free charging for electric vehicles

You just need to give the car and the key, all with the staff

Dry cleaning of clothes at Menlo Park office

Be enthusiastic about working without fear of dirty because there is always a laundry service

See also: 9 most important figures in Facebook history

You finished reading the article "Don't just think about money, these are 11 great benefits that Mark Zuckerberg has for Facebook employees" edited by the TipsMake team. We hope this article has provided you with many useful tech tips and tricks. You can search for similar articles on tips and guides. Thank you for reading and for following us regularly.
