Tieu Ngao Gamota, like many other games, is a mobile game but has top-notch graphics and requires a high-configuration smartphone to run smoothly. But not many people have chosen to play on mobile because this is a grinder game, requiring continuous time for the character to work in the game.

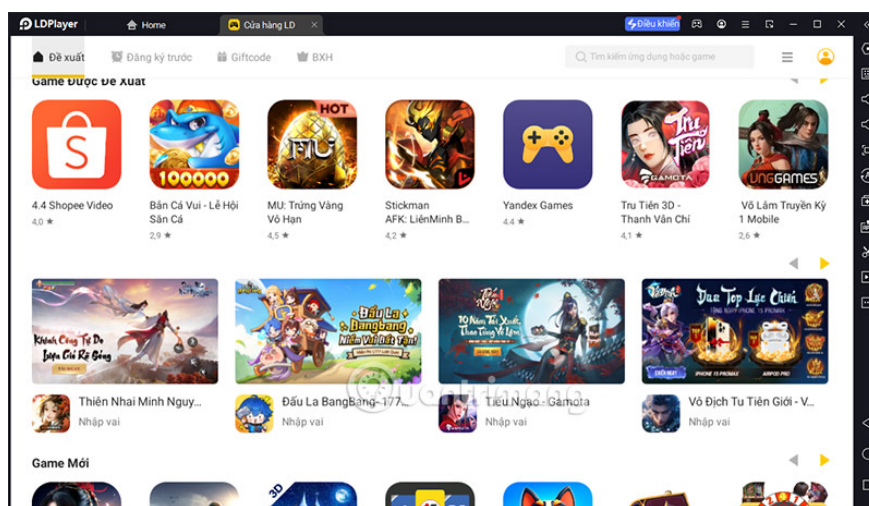

Therefore, you can choose to play on PC, because on PC there are Android emulators to help you play Tieu Ngao Gamota smoothly and you can use your smartphone for other things. If you want to play Laughing Gamota on PC, please scroll down a little more.

Install the game Tieu Ngao Gamota on the computer

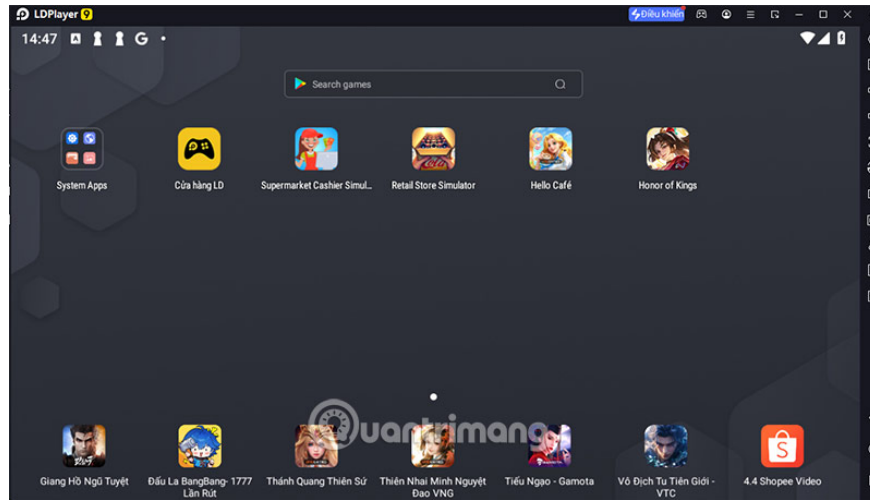

Step 1: Download the Gamota Laughing Arrogance installation file below, this will be the LDPlayer 9 installation file if your device does not have this emulator.

Laughing Arrogantly Gamota PC

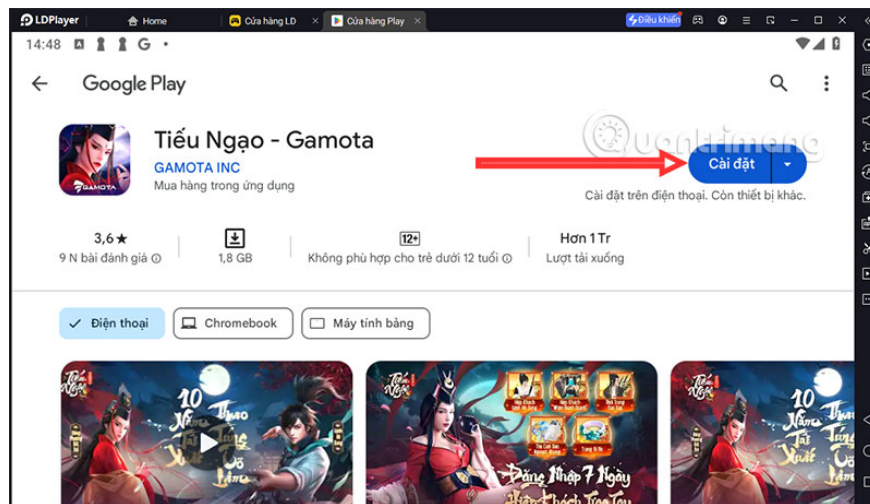

Once downloaded, launch the installation file and wait until you start the LDPlayer emulator.

Step 2: Laughing Arrogantly Gamota is a hot game, so you will see it displayed right on the main page of the LD Store. If you don't see it, just search the game name search box and search for the game name and you will see it.

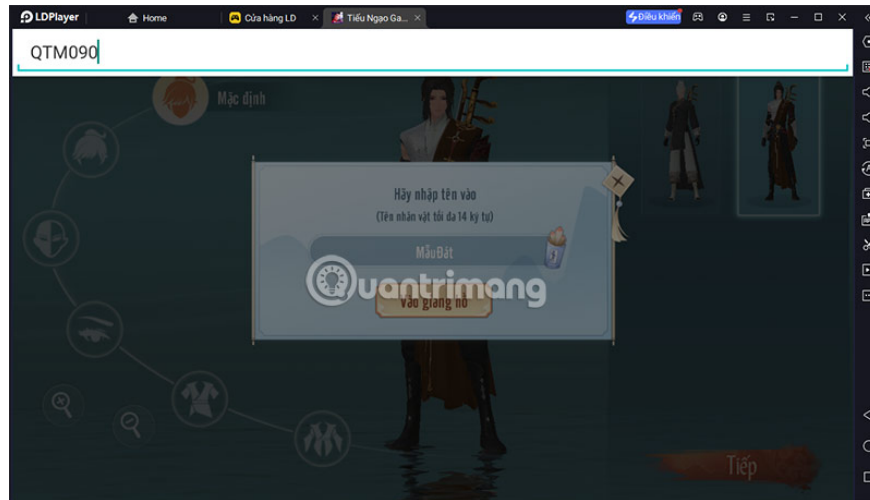

Step 3: Once you see the game, select Install. After completing the installation, just select Play to run the game.

Step 4: Customizing the character in Laughing Proudly Gamota will be somewhat slower when you operate with the mouse and have to operate on a large screen. Furthermore, even if your computer configuration is strong, there will still be a slight lag phenomenon.

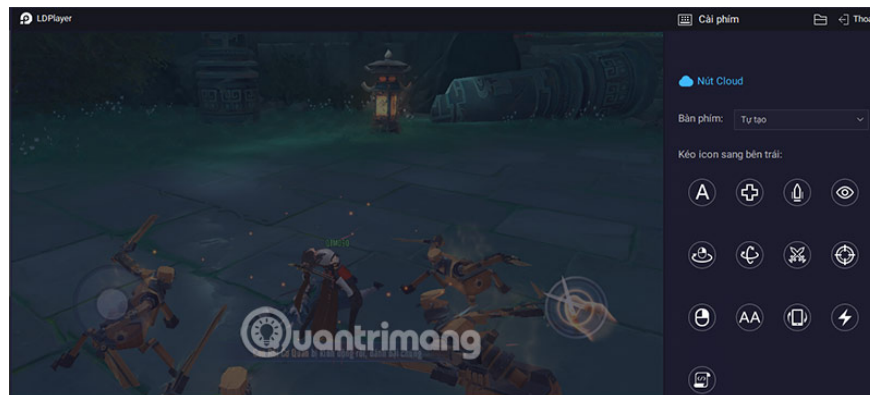

Step 5: Entering characters will now be by keyboard, of course because you play on the computer. When you enter content into the chat box, rename box or anywhere else in the game where content can be entered, you will see the keyboard display a little slower.

Step 6: The most important thing now is to adjust the way you control the character. You can use the mouse to click on all the icons on the screen. But if there are combats or going on trains, it will be very slow and you need to set up shortcuts on the icons.

Just select the 3rd keyboard icon from the top down in the tool column on the right side of the screen, select the shortcut icons in the icon panel below and drag to the in-game features and select Save below.
