What is Dragon Ball Daima?

'Dragon Ball Daima' is an anime celebrating the 40th anniversary of Dragon Ball. The series was announced late last year at New York Comic-Con with a short trailer promising to show us what Goku looked like as a child. Dragon Ball Daima will be set between Dragon Ball Z and Dragon Ball Super, and will, of course, be part of the main manga series.

The original synopsis was as follows: 'Due to a conspiracy, Goku and his friends are shrunk. To return to normal, they will travel to a new world!' 'Dragon Ball Daima' is a fantastic action-adventure in a mysterious, unknown world. And to fight, Goku must use Nyoibo, the sacred staff, to break the "limits" to his current size restriction. '

The creative team behind Dragon Ball Daima includes:

1. Original artwork, Story & Character design: Akira Toriyama
2. Director: Yoshitaka Yashima, Aya Komaki
3. Anime character design: Katsuyoshi Nakatsuru
4. Layout and script: Yuko Kakihara

Regarding the meaning of Daima, according to Toriyama, "DAIMA" in Japanese would be '??' or in English would be something like 'Demon'.
