We all have a friend, who is behind the camera for us but never appears in any of his own photos. Souvenir photography is considered an indispensable procedure when traveling. However, not everyone can take a self-image of his own body, but thanks to the tourists accidentally passing by. Unfortunately, many times people get thanks to just taking a few calls to get the payout.

Have you ever encountered that situation or not? Have you asked them to take a picture and then regret it when you receive the photo? Please share with everyone the worst picture of yourself when taken by a complete stranger.
